HYPNOTIZED BY PRETTY GIRL, HE ASSERTS

Alameda Youth, Accused of Forgery, Wonders if He Is Really Married.

ALAMEDA, June 21.—Ralph C. Parr, the Burlingame clerk, accused of forgery, appeared before Justice Elmer Johnson this morning and was arraigned. His preliminary examination was set for Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock.

During the time the complaint was being read to him Parr gazed about the court room, his glances shifting from spectator to spectator. He was perfectly composed, and when his attorney, Howard K. James, suggested Tuesday morning for the examination, he assented and Justice Johnson ordered the preliminary for that time.

Deputy District Attorney W. H. L. Hynds is representing the prosecution.

AN ALAMEDA GIRL.

Yesterday afternoon Ralph Parr was brought to this city and is now in the city jail. Since his arrival he has not spoken to be in the best of spirits. He tells a disconnected story, at one time denying that Mrs. Edser, as she is known here, is his wife, and a minute later talking about "his wife" and reciting a strange story.

"She says I am married to her, so I guess I am. She says I was drunk when I was married to her. If you knew all the trouble that people are making for me you would know I was innocent. I never remember cashing that check and they will have to prove it. I never cashed the check and this looks like a plot to get me in trouble."

WAS HE HYPNOTIZED?

"I don't know what is the matter. This woman may have hypnotized me. That is the only way I can account for my acting as I did. I never intended to make her my wife and I don't think she is, though she insists she married me at San Mateo."

Questioned if the woman was telling her story because she ran away with him and was living with him in Denver, Parr said he did not know.

"I expect to get out on bonds," he said. "I never remember doing all the things these people say I have done. Three years ago my parents wanted me put in an asylum, as they said I was insane, but they did not know what they were talking about. I have had spells once in a while, but am not crazy and that will not be my plea in court. I never cashed that check, and that is all there is to it."

ALAMEDA BANK LOSES.

J. E. Baker, president of the Alameda Bank, on which the raised check was cashed, says Parr deposited the check and then kept drawing on the funds. He declares that the loss of the bank has been $500 through the operations of the young man.

Parr this morning stated that his wife, or Mrs. Edser, was to be in this city in a few days. "I am sure she will come," he said. "These stories about her are all false. She is Spanish and not a creole, as some of the papers said. She is a fine woman, stylish and good looking. The picture that was in the paper does not do her justice."

WEATHER REPORT

POLICE LOOK FOR COUSIN OF ANDREW CARNEGIE

Pensioned Relative of Steel Trust Philanthropist Disappears From Home in Alameda.

ALAMEDA, June 21.—Mrs. Anna Greenet, a distant cousin of Andrew Carnegie, has disappeared and the police have been asked to locate her. The woman has been in the employ of Librarian F. B. Graves and left his home on Wednesday afternoon. She did not go to her home on Lincoln avenue, and it is feared that she has become mentally unbalanced and is wandering about.

Mrs. Greenet every month receives a small sum from Carnegie. She has a number of letters written by the secretary of the philanthropist. Fear that the money would not come if she told of her relationship has caused the woman to be very secret.

A year ago, when interviewed by a newspaper correspondent, she became greatly excited and asked that no story be written about her.

STRIKE IS ORDERED

San Francisco, June 21.

21. --- The Western Union and Postal Telegraph operators in San Francisco and Oakland will strike at 3:30 this afternoon.

President Wheeler Gives His Views on Japanese Question

(By Associated Press.)

NEW YORK, June 21.—President Benjamin Ide Wheeler of the University of California, who is here, believes that the conditions on the Pacific coast, in so far as the Oriental people are concerned, are very grave and present to the residents a question that will not be easily solved.

In an interview, Mr. Wheeler said: "It is not a question whether the Chinese or Japanese shall go to the same schools as the white children, neither is it a question whether some of the Japanese have been assaulted or treated badly, but the question is one much broader in its scope."

"It is simply whether the people of the Pacific coast shall become inoculated with the Oriental ideas and plans of procedure, or whether they shall remain on a truly Occidental basis. Shall or shall not the Pacific coast states suffer the same fate as Hawaii?"

"Shall the states of the coast be overrun with Japanese and finally feel the effects of their presence as it is felt in the places where they are largely in evidence."

48 Mutineers Shot By Order of Czar

KIEV, June 21.—The court martial convened to try the mutinous sappers. The government of Banievka is said to have acted with promptness and severity. It is reported that 48 mutineers have already been condemned and shot.

YOUTH, IN BED, SHOT AT BY A BURGLAR

Caught in Act of Going Through Window, Thug Attempts Murder.

Foster M. Martin, 17-year-old son of C. T. Martin, a bookmaker residing in a cottage at 1376 Webster street, narrowly escaped being murdered by a masked burglar about 4 o'clock this morning. A 32-caliber pistol bullet fired from the burglar's weapon passed a few inches above young Martin as he lay in bed and lodged in a corner of the bedstead.

The burglar, who is believed by young Martin to be a negro, held his pistol in his left hand when he shot at the boy. The burglar was in the act of backing out of a front window as he fired. Young Martin at once sent two bullets whizzing towards the departing intruder but evidently missed him, as he got away in the darkness, though police were at the scene a few minutes later. All they could discover were the footprints in the sod under the window where the burglar had landed as he jumped out, and torn plants showing where he had climbed into the window, which is about eight feet above the ground.

BURGLAR GIVES ALARM.

Foster Martin's bedroom window faces Webster street. It is a wide window, a single pane of glass in each sash. The boy had raised the lower sash about six inches when he went to bed for the purpose of airing the room. A slight noise made by the burglar, who had gone from Foster's bedroom through the front hall and thence into the dining room, awakened the boy about 4 o'clock. He observed that his bedroom window sash was raised fully two feet higher than he had left it. He at once suspected that a burglar had entered the house.

The boy reached into a bureau drawer, took out his pistol and, with it ready in his hand, laid down on his bed to await developments. His father, mother and young brother were sleeping in rooms in the back part of the cottage.

THUG DISCOVERED.

Presently Foster Martin distinguished a man's figure backing into his bedroom from the front hall. As the masked intruder turned, facing the bed, young Martin cried out:

"What do you want?"

The fellow instantly covered the boy with his pistol and backed to the window, which was only six feet distant. As he got his feet out and his body was half out of the window the intruder fired at young Martin. Then the burglar dropped to the ground.

After Martin had shot twice out of the window he ran through the hallway, opened the front door and hurried into the street, but could see nothing of the burglar. It was the darkest hour of the night, and trees and shrubbery in the vicinity also afforded hiding places.

When C. T. Martin was aroused by the pistol shots he hurried to the front part of his residence and found his son, with pistol in hand, his teeth chattering, searching for the burglar. The police immediately responded to a telephone call, but the burglar had made good his escape. Detectives McCreary and Flynn have been detached to search for the burglar.

THREATENS TO RUIN CHILD'S EYES

RIVERSIDE, June 21.—Mrs. Gertrude Morris was today found guilty of blackmail by a jury in the Superior Court. She wrote a letter to Mrs. Merrill Call, a young widow of Coronado, demanding $250, upon failure to comply with which she threatened to put out the eyes of a young child of Mrs. Call's and burn down the house. She will be sentenced July 10.

SCHMITZ SAID TO HAVE LEFT JAIL IN NIGHT

Story to the Effect That He Went to Redwood City to Visit W. J. Dingee.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.)

SAN FRANCISCO, June 21.—The Bulletin this afternoon prints a story to the effect that Mayor Schmitz is said to have left the county jail in his automobile last Monday night and gone to Redwood City as the guest of W. J. Dingee.

District Attorney Langdon is said to have received a telephone message from a physician of Redwood City to the effect that he saw the mayor alight from his automobile and enter the Dingee residence.

Sheriff O'Neill and Chief Jailer Kirwan deny that Schmitz left the jail and Dingee also denies the story.

District Attorney Langdon is investigating it.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 21.—

"We have received a report that Schmitz was allowed to visit the Dingee home," said District Attorney Langdon. "My informant telephoned this office late yesterday afternoon. We are going to make a thorough investigation of the matter, and, in fact, have begun to do so already."

"My informant has asked that his name be kept out of the matter, and for that reason I cannot give it out. He is a man of some prominence in the community and one whom we may trust.

"If our investigation verifies his report we shall most certainly take action. In such case there is no doubt that the sheriff is responsible. It is an escape and even though a deputy were detailed to watch the prisoner he would be guilty of aiding in an escape."

"We shall probe this matter to the bottom."

HIGHER WAGES ARE DEMANDED

Eastern Operators Will Not Be Affected by Walkout of Coast Men.

Representatives of the telegraphers of Oakland and San Francisco and representatives of the Western Union and the Postal Telegraph companies are meeting in West Oakland this afternoon in an effort to affect a settlement whereby the threatened strike of the telegraphers may be averted.

According to the best information obtainable at this writing a strike seems inevitable. That the Western Union and the Postal people fear a strike is best shown by the fact that this afternoon the police department was asked to send policemen to West Oakland to prevent any possible trouble should the men go on a strike. Sergeant Mulgrew and one patrolman were dispatched to West Oakland, where a large number of telegraphers are employed.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 21.—Telegraph operators in the employ of Western Union and Postal Companies in San Francisco and Oakland will strike today.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 21.—A member of the executive committee of the Telegraphers' Union states that a strike will be declared in San Francisco and Oakland against both the Postal and Western Union Telegraph Companies. This strike will be purely local and will not affect Eastern offices.

President Sam J. Small of the Commercial Telegraphers' Union is in conference with the local committee. He has seen the statement issued yesterday by President Clowry of the Western Union, but says that will make no difference so far as the situation in San Francisco is concerned.

NO STRIKE, HE SAYS.

NEW YORK, June 21.—Deputy President S. J. Koenkamp of the Telegraphers' Union said today that there would be no strike of the telegraphers in San Francisco. He said that when President Small of the union made the statement in San Francisco last night that a strike would be declared today, the union president had not been informed that a settlement of the difficulties had been reached in this city through the good office of Commissioner of Labor Neill.

"I did not send the report of the settlement to President Small until midnight last night," said Deputy President Koenkamp today, and when LAWYER ABSENT.

The preliminary examination of James Reed, on a charge of looting Pule's jewelry store of $2500 worth of diamonds, was halted in Police Court No. 1 today owing to the non-appearance of Attorney Creely. The examination was put over until Monday next, with the understanding that if Creely is not then present, the court will appoint an attorney for Reed.

BOYS HELD FOR BURGLARY.

Arthur Price and William Burgess, San Francisco lads of seventeen years, were today held to answer before the Superior Court by Police Judge Samuels on charges of burglary. They are accused of robbing several rooms in the Twelfth House on Twelfth street. Bail was fixed at $2000 each.

INCURABLE DISEASE MAY BRING RELIEF TO SCHMITZ

Mayor's Application for Release on Bail by Writ of Habeas Corpus Under Advisement.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 21.—Some decision by the District Court of Appeals is looked for today in the application of Mayor Schmitz for release on bail by writ of habeas corpus. Judge Hall is out of town, but Judges Cooper and Kerrigan are in chambers.

They have taken the Mayor's application under advisement and it is understood, though not officially, that the writ will be granted. This does not necessarily mean that the Mayor will be admitted to bail, but that his allegation that he is suffering from an incurable disease which may be rendered fatal by confinement entitles him to a fuller hearing before the court to determine its merit.

District Attorney Langdon said this morning: "We have not yet been served with a copy of the Mayor's application, so I am not officially advised of its contents. I shall merely say at this time from what I have heard casually of the grounds urged by Mr. Schmitz none of them has any merit except the assertion that he is suffering from an incurable disease. In that there may be something worthy of investigation. We shall, of course, take all proper steps to oppose the Mayor's application to bail as soon as we have been served with notice of his application."

FRIDAY EVENING,

CONGRESSMAN KNOWLAND TELLS OF PANAMA CANAL

Says That Under French Regime Graft Was Rank—Snow-Plows Were Even Purchased.

Sen. Joseph E. Knowland lectured before the Elks last night, taking as his subject the Panama Canal. He is a member of the committee of the House that made the trip in order to investigate the conditions and the progress of the work.

There was a large attendance that filled the hall to its full capacity.

Congressman Knowland said in part: "The people of the United States are taking a deeper interest in the construction of the great Panama canal than the many projects ever undertaken by the Government before."

"The government owns a line of steamships and also the Panama Railway. These were both acquired when Uncle Sam bought out the interests of the French company for the sum of $40,000,000. The State of California derives more benefit by the completion of this great canal than any other State in the Union; therefore this project is of the greatest interest to the people of the Pacific Coast."

NOT NATURAL HARBOR.

"The Harbor of Colon is not an exceptional good natural harbor. There is a sand bar there that is quite dangerous and often vessels desiring to enter the harbor to lay off the port for as long a time as three days, but the Government has plans to do away with these conditions and, in fact, will build an artificial land-locked harbor at that place. The original name of the city of Colon was Aspinwall, named in honor of A. W. Aspinwall, the originator of the Panama canal project. When the French started work on the canal they immediately changed the name of the town to Colon."

"The natives, brought to the isthmus from the nearby islands to work, have a mania of riding on the railway, it being the first experience of the kind for many of them."

EMPLOY MANY.

"The French employed about one thousand Chinese when they started work on the canal, but they proved to be a costly experiment, as within less than two months they had all committed suicide by hanging themselves with their cuffs or by other means equally peculiar."

"The canal zone is ten miles wide."

ALLEGED FREIGHT CAR LOOTER IS CAPTURED

WEST OAKLAND, June 21.—State Railroad Policeman Bracken and Regular Patrolman Banta yesterday arrested John Capro, a Greek, at Atlantic and Cedar streets and booked him for petty larceny. Capro had in his possession two pieces of babbitt metal, a bucket, a watch, $7.50 in coin, and a $50 bill for the amount of the stolen property.

Capro was arrested in court June 25. He is believed to be one of the freight car looters who have been carrying on a system of depredations in the Southern Pacific railroad yards here.

SAND "PEEPING TOM" UNDER STREET GRATING

James Peterson, a negro 39 years old, was told the police that he was employed to assist Dr. Charles A. Dukes in caring for the latter's automobile. The frightened fellow then went to the street and turned white.

An electrician, who went into the basement of the Central Bank, was astonished to find there a person standing on the floor. Peterson permitted him to peer through the grating between the steps of the bank building and inspect the suspected pettifogger of women passing down the steps.

The electrician hurried out and called the police. Peterson was arrested and taken to the police station. When Peterson was taken to the police station, he was found that he was a "peeping tom."

It is believed that he will be warned out of the bank basement in the future and cease to practice the role of "peeping tom."

WOMAN SIX TIMES HELD FOR DISTURBING PEACE

Mrs. Mary Anderson, who was arrested last night for disturbing the peace, appeared this morning in Justice of the Peace Quinn's court and pleaded guilty. She was placed in the custody of the sheriff and ordered back to the county jail.

Mrs. Anderson will be sentenced tomorrow morning. This is the sixth time Mrs. Anderson has been arrested for disturbing the peace and for this offense she begged last night for the rich man's wife. The justice stated that he would have to punish her in some way to make her understand that she cannot violate the law and go free.

UNHAPPY PAIRS AIR TROUBLES

Business in Divorce Courts Keeps Up to Standard in Spite of Season.

Florence M. Brock brought suit for divorce today from Ralph L. Brock on the grounds of desertion. Over a year ago she instituted a similar action on the grounds of cruelty. She failed to make good her charges, so waited a year and had Attorney Redmond C. Staats file a complaint for her on the grounds of desertion.

William Rigby Jr. instituted divorce proceedings this morning against Mabel L. Rigby on the grounds of desertion. Judge Melvin granted an interlocutory decree of divorce today to Rudolph J. Korte from Caroline Korte. The couple were married in Bridgeport, Conn., in September, 1904. According to Korte, his wife left him two months later.

Lena C. Houston, a nurse, was given final decree of divorce this morning from J. B. Houston on the grounds of desertion and failure to provide.

ROBBERS PLEADS GUILTY.

Harry Hooper, alias Harry Moore, entered a plea of guilty this morning to the robbery he committed on March 21 last at Mason, McDuffie Company's office in Berkeley, when he stole some tools. The robbery was committed at 6.30 o'clock in the afternoon, so the degree of crime will have to be determined before Judge Melvin will pass sentence. If evening had fallen at the time of the theft, Hooper would be given a sentence for robbery in the first degree. Otherwise his penalty will not be as heavy.

RUN DOWN BY HUNGRY DRIVER ON WAY TO MEAL

Teamster, Rushing for Breakfast, Drives Over Aged Flagman and Local Train Has Narrow Escape.

The Seventh street local of the Southern Pacific was not so much of importance this morning to stop Fred H. Merrill, a teamster, of room 8, 715 Eighth street, from getting to the breakfast table in the most possible haste. Despite the warning flag waved by G. M. Perkins, the flagman at Seventh and Washington streets, Merrill drove his team at a fast trot nearly in front of the rapidly approaching train. When he saw the danger was too great to cross the tracks, Merrill tried to pull up the team, but did not until he had knocked down and run over Perkins, who is 55 years old and lives at 354 Brush street.

Perkins did not escape injuries, for one of the horses stepped on his right hand, fracturing one of the bones of the index finger. The fracture was set at the Receiving Hospital by Steward Borchert.

"I could not take time to stop for the train when the flagman waved the flag at me," said Merrill when he reported the affair to the police station. "I was on my way to breakfast. I was in too much of a hurry to stop for the train, for I was hungry and wanted a meal."

Merrill gave his name to the police and said he would be easily found should there be inquiries for him. He seems repentant over the accident caused by his craving for his morning meal.

ONE YEAR FOR TOOL THIEF.

William Jackson pleaded guilty this morning to robbery and was sentenced to one year imprisonment in the penitentiary at San Quentin by Judge Melvin. Jackson stole some carpenter tools from Oliver Young on June 15 last. He was arrested by the Berkeley police, and after a day or two in jail he asked for an immediate sentence. Jackson was taken out to the college town yesterday for a preliminary examination and was held over for sentence.

SPECIAL FOR

Extra! Extra!...Pair Pants...Free! Free!

For 2 Days, Friday June 21st, and Saturday June 22nd.

The reason we make this great offer is as the season for light suits is almost over, and we have a great many light suits still on hand to dispose of them at once, we make this remarkable offer. We thought we could dispose of them in one day, but we had such a great lot of them, that we extended this sale for two days more, to give everybody a chance to get a $35.00 suit for $15.00, and extra pair pants free. These suits are not the regular Scotch Plaid suits which we generally sell for $15, but they are mostly from our new department of Fancy Worsteds. They are the most magnificent patterns that ever reached the Pacific Coast, but they are of light colors and we don't want them in hand for next summer. They must go at once. Take advantage of this great opportunity, you may never get it again. Remember these suits are not ready-made suits, you select the pattern you like the best, and we'll take your measure, make you a try-on and build you a suit as perfect as human hands can produce a suit in fit, workmanship, and style—fills your cup of satisfaction to the brim. Every order taken up to Saturday night, 10 p. m., will be made on our $35 standard for $15.00, extra pair of pants free. These suits are made in our own shop by the best of Union Mechanics. Every garment bears the Union Label. We are the only tailors on the Pacific Coast who make suits to order with the Union Label of the United Garment Workers of America. When we say that they are made in our own shops, it is so, because we can prove it to you. We will be only too glad to have you come and examine our shops, which are located at 965-969 Webster St., Oakland. You can see how the work is made mostly by hand, but we must use machines for stitching and irons for pressing. We can't tell people that our suits are hand tailored through and through because, it isn't so. There is no suit in existence in these days that is made without using machines and irons, but our suits are mostly made by hand, as it's custom work.

Come early, and avoid the rush.

SUMMER SCHOOL.

The Polytechnic Business College does not close during the summer months and students may enroll at any time. The courses of study are the most thorough and practical ever devised for young men and women.

LATEST NEWS FROM ALAMEDA AND BERKELEY

FLOWERS SAVE
LIFE OF CHILD

Infant Falls From Window and
Is Caught by Rose
Bush.

BERKELEY, June 21.—A rose bush saved the life of a child here yesterday. The thirteen-month-old baby of Mrs. C. McCoy fell twenty feet from a window at Addison and McKinley streets, while his mother's attention was diverted, and it was saved from almost certain death on the cement pavement below by striking a rose tree close to the house line.

Mrs. McCoy's attention was called to the accident by the screams of the child. When rescued the baby was found to have escaped with a few scratches.

CAPITALISTS INSPECT
BERKELEY FACTORIES

BERKELEY, June 21.—J. S. Bergman and J. P. Corbett, capitalists of Los Angeles, spent two days in Berkeley this week visiting the factories of West Berkeley. They are making a tour of the northern part of the State inspecting the large industries. Yesterday they spent the day looking over the powder plant of the E. I. DuPont de Nemours Company at Point Richmond. They are contemplating erecting a large manufacturing plant either in this city or near Los Angeles in the near future.

10-YEAR-OLD BOY IS BOOKED AS RUNAWAY

ALAMEDA, June 21.—Charles Lange, ten years of age, was picked up on Park street last night by a policeman and booked at the station for being a runaway. The boy left his home at 432 San Pablo avenue in Oakland early yesterday morning. He was detained at the local police station over night and was returned to his parents this morning.

BOY'S CLOTHES RUINED
WHILE HE WAS SWIMMING

ALAMEDA, June 21.—Leslie Brown, a boy of fifteen years, was arrested yesterday on a charge of malicious mischief on complaint of Mrs. Agnes Henderson, who alleges that the boy and a companion ruined a suit of clothes of her seven-year-old son while he was bathing the other day. Young Henderson was compelled to walk to his home on Alameda avenue, five blocks away, in his bathing suit.

FINES REAL ESTATE MAN.

ALAMEDA, June 21.—Herbert Blandin, the well-known real estate agent and capitalist, was yesterday fined $50 for having rear lights on his automobile. Blandin claimed that he was about to ignite the wick in the lamp when he was arrested. The fine was imposed by Justice Tappan.

ALLEGES FAILURE TO PROVIDE.

ALAMEDA, June 21.—Edward Gilligan, a mill worker, was arrested yesterday on a charge of failing to provide for his wife and small child. Gilligan was married here a year ago and was in frequent trouble with the police. He is now living at 356 First street, in Oakland.

SPIN YARNS AND SING.

ALAMEDA, June 21.—The Alameda Improvement Club met at its quarters on Webster street last night. After a short discussion of civic topics a social program was given. Members of the club told stories and recited poems, while outside talent contributed musical numbers. The club meets every Thursday night.

LARGE CONDUCTS FUNERAL.

BERKELEY, June 21.—Berkeley Lodge No. 363, F. and M. S., conducted the funeral of the late John L. Jones, who died at Roosevelt hospital Wednesday, the result of a fall from a ladder. The interment was at Mountain View cemetery. Jones sustained a fracture of his right arm when he fell. He was 49 years of age and leaves a widow and daughter. The funeral was held from his late residence, 2310 Kelsey street.

HIS BRIDE IN PARISMRS. MAY CHENEY
TO TOUR EUROPEU. C. Appointment
Secretary Takes Vacation.

BERKELEY, June 21.—Mrs. May L. Cheney, appointment secretary at the University of California, will leave in a week or two for an extended tour of Europe. She will be away for about six months. In Paris Mrs. Cheney will spend considerable time with her son Harry, who is studying architecture there.

Harry Cheney is a graduate of the State University. He was married in Berkeley a few months ago, and left with his bride for the French capital to pursue the study of his chosen profession. Mrs. Cheney is the wife of Warren Cheney of Berkeley, the well known writer. Her husband is the author of a number of interesting stories of early Russian days in Alaska. He is also engaged in the real estate business here.

During her trip Mrs. Cheney will visit the principal centers of interest in England and on the continent. She will devote particular attention to the work of the various European schools of sculpture, in which she is greatly interested. Upon her return Mrs. Cheney will resume her work at the university.

WIFE FAILS TO APPEAR
AGAINST CITY ATTORNEYCourt Issues Bench Warrant to Compel
Mrs. M. W. Simpson to Continue Suit for Maintenance.

ALAMEDA, June 21.—After securing the arrest of her husband, City Attorney M. W. Simpson, on a charge of failure to provide for her, Mrs. Isabelle Davis Simpson, whom the city attorney married to save prosecution on a felony charge, failed to appear in court this morning when the case was called, and a bench warrant was issued to compel her to be in court next Tuesday morning at 9 o'clock.

After waiting an hour for the woman to appear, Deputy District Attorney W. H. L. Hyman suggested that the warrant be issued.

Last night Mrs. Simpson was subpoenaed to be in court this morning. She did not answer the summons, and her husband asked for a dismissal of the case. He declared that he had receipts in his possession which he offered to exhibit to the court which proved the falseness of the statement made by the woman, and further declared that arrangements had been made whereby he was to pay her $35 a month, which he has declared satisfactory.

OBJECTS TO DISMISSAL.

Prosecutor Hyman said he would have agreed to the dismissal, "but that he did not desire to have the District Attorney's office made monkeys of by anyone," and asked for the bench warrant.

Justice Johnson granted it immediately, stating that it was not his desire "to be made a fool of and have the orders of the court become a laughing stock."

"I want to know why this woman doesn't appear in court," said Hyman. "She can't sit at home and laugh at us after she has been served with a subpoena and I want her to be in this court."

He then asked Justice Johnson to call in some outside judge to sit in the case, as he declared Johnson was disqualified.

"You have said, your honor," continued Hyman, "that you could not believe this woman under oath, and believe she is looking for newspaper notoriety, and therefore you are not qualified to act."

TO MAKE INSURANCE POLICIES UNIFORM

BERKELEY, June 21.—City Clerk Mendelhall is busily engaged in equalizing the insurance policies on the school buildings and contents. This amounts to approximately $300,000, and the policies are varied and not uniform. It is for the purpose of making them uniform, at least in important clauses, that he is going carefully through each policy. It is proposed to give every insurance agent in town his share of the business, and to do this it will be necessary to increase the amount carried with certain insurance companies and reduce that in others.

Again, some of the policies prohibit other insurance, and this must be cut out and permission given, in order to secure the business. The changes that are contemplated include: Making of repairs and alterations; use of electric lights; cutting out of the "earthquake clause," where it is found, and permission to carry additional insurance.

"As this business is sought by all agents in the business, there will be no trouble in getting these changes made, and all of the policies will then be uniform."

BLACKCAPS ARE ON THE COMEDIAN'S TRAIL

ALAMEDA, June 21.—Mayor Edward K. Taylor and a party of "Eminent Blackcaps" are holding a conference today to decide whether they will cut and slice, or hold in oil, or egg to death, or just laugh at Ben Hartman, comedian, singer, stage manager and general boss of the stage at Idora park. Parris sings songs about the good old days of Benjamin Franklin's time. In the refrain he makes it appear that good old Alameda is a town that is as it is in Ben Franklin's days.

"Oh, my! but there is a row in Alameda over the song Mayor Taylor is going to do to all sorts of things to the comedian. Mutual friends have tried to hold him down, but he will not go. He just wants satisfaction for his city. He defies Hartman to down Alameda."

Since the comedian heard of the "blackcaps" he goes home by the rear gate at Idora and always takes three bodyguards with him.

Leader Steinford is also on Alameda's black list for leading the music against Alameda.

TELEGRAPHERS DO NOT BELONG TO THE UNION

BERKELEY, June 21.—None of the telegraph operators in the State belong to the Western Union or Postal companies are members of the union and it is not probable that they will go on a strike, because there is, of course, a sympathy expressed, but this is along the lines of the California State telegraphers' union, which is not a union at all, but a friendly association.

SHOW CITY'S BEAUTIES.

BERKELEY, June 21.—Several weeks ago the local Chamber of Commerce appropriated $5 to a fund to be used by the state executive committee for entertainment of the Grand Lodge of Odd Fellows which comes to Berkeley this week of May 14. An exhibit showing the attractions in Berkeley was installed at the hotel. Secretary Wyckoff has received an itemized statement of expenditures and the sum of $5.75, unexpended out of the appropriation.

MASONRY PLAN
CELEBRATION

Berkeley Lodge to Hold Reception on Third Anniversary of Its Institution.

BERKELEY, June 21.—Invitations have been issued by Berkeley Lodge No. 363, Free and Accepted Masons, for a reception to be held on the third anniversary of the organization on next Thursday evening in the new Masonic temple. Elaborate plans have been made, assuring the success of the event.

Beginning at 8 o'clock, a musical program will be rendered, and at 9:30 there will be dancing in the spacious dining-room, followed by the serving of refreshments. No pains have been spared to make the occasion a most pleasant one for the members of the order and their families.

The invitations which have been issued are unusually neat in design and on them appears the emblem of the order in gold.

Berkeley Lodge, No. 363, was organized in June, 1934, and since that time has flourished. The original officers were:

A. S. Parsons, worshipful master; J. T. Morrison, senior warden; J. E. Robinson, junior warden; H. V. L. Swann, treasurer; W. E. Loy, secretary.

BRINGS QUEEN'S
WORD TO BLIND

Mrs. Fearn Tells of Carmen
Sylvia's World-Work for Afflicted.

BERKELEY, June 21.—Mrs. Frances Walker Fearn addressed a large and appreciative audience last night in the chapel of the State Institution for the Deaf, dumb and blind, when she gave the lecture which will be used in missionary work for the blind, and a goodly sum was received.

Mrs. Fearn is one of the most energetic and enthusiastic workers in behalf of the blind in the world today and has been the subject of a book, "The Blind and the World," by Queen Elizabeth, who has done much for the blind.

Mrs. Fearn said in part: "My mission is to carry a message of love from Queen Elizabeth to the blind of the world. She is the messenger of Queen Elizabeth of Rumania, who has done much for the blind."

"With this Rumanian press the blind will be able to read the news of the world, and to tell them that she believes that a new era is dawning for them from the printing machine that has been invented there by a blind printer."

It is very simple in construction, prints rapidly and is of the size of a book. This machine she believes the literature of the world will be open to the blind. The number of books as the libraries are so limited for the blind. Even with the appropriation of $10,000 which our government has made for the blind, the number of books is far too limited."

"The Rumanian press the blind will be able to read the news of the world, and to tell them that she believes that a new era is dawning for them from the printing machine that has been invented there by a blind printer."

The speaker was the royal robe which she wore that has been accomplished by Mrs. Fearn. She described each scene in such a manner as to hold her audience and many of the blind people who listened to the lecture told her later that her graphic descriptions enabled them "to see" the pictures as well as if they were not afflicted.

As Mrs. Fearn left the platform she was warmly thanked by every one present, and tears glistened in many eyes.

Mrs. Fearn made an appeal to her audience to subscribe $1 annually to the fund for the blind, which was badly damaged during the fire.

Walker Fearn, the husband of Mrs. Frances Fearn, died about six years ago. He was Ambassador to Greece.

Mrs. Fearn will remain in California for another month, and then will go to Santa Barbara, Los Angeles and the other southern cities, where she will lecture. She will then go to Hawaii and to various cities in the United States.

BOYS ANNOY VISITORS AT BERKELEY LIBRARY

BERKELEY, June 21.—Young hoodlums have made life a burden to visitors at the West Berkeley reading room and to the librarian there. Reports of their actions have been frequent, but every time the police would go there the youngsters would make themselves scarce. This has been going on for several weeks, and it has at last become unbearable and the police propose to stop it.

In the morning the librarian to the police, made last night, it is said that a gang of boys congregated in front of a store adjoining the reading room, at the corner of Seventh street and University avenue, every evening.

The boys' disorderly conduct, and the fact that the hoodlums shoot off fireworks, disturb the peace, insult girls and women who pass, and conduct themselves in a way that is objectionable and indecent.

Whenever a police officer is seen, these boys disappear, only to return as soon as he is out of sight.

Last night Policeman Wyckoff, who was in plain clothes, surprised five of the boys when he stopped suddenly as he passed the corner and placed them under arrest. These were Charles Chandler of 315 Bristol street; Arthur Burt, San Pablo avenue between Bristol and Delaware streets; Henry Jorgensen, Third street; Bancroft way; Arthur Stewart, Eighth street; and Robert Irigoyen, 2116 Eighth street. The boys were taken to police headquarters, where they emphatically denied they were the ones wanted, and had done nothing wrong.

Chief Vollmer gave them a straight-from-the-shoulder lecture and warned them to keep away from the library. He then let them go home. He says he will break up this gang and it will take the entire force to accomplish it.

WHEELER SAYS RUGBY IS GAME FOR WESTERN TEAMS

President of State University Declares
That Californians Will Not Imitate
Eastern Football.

NEW YORK, June 21.—President Benjamin Ide Wheeler of the University of California, was the guest at a dinner tonight of the University of California Club of New York. President Wheeler spoke enthusiastically of the prospects of the university.

Of the reformed style of football played there he said:

"The game is one that can be played without one being an abnormal son of God. It can be played by the sons of men. It gives exercise to individualism. There is a feeling among the students that it is not the same game that is played in the eastern east, but after all we do not care much for that. We do not imitate out in California. We do not worry if we are not doing the same things that they are doing at Princeton, Yale and Harvard."

"I personally do not believe in that kind of athletics that consists of sitting in the bleachers and yelling at college teams. It may satisfy some, but it is not exercise."

Wheeler will start west in a few days.

BRIDE'S FATHER OFFICIATES AT PRETTY BERKELEY WEDDING

BERKELEY, June 21.—The wedding of Miss Helen Phillips Edwards, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William P. Edwards, of 2436 Virginia street, and Harry Julius Kaufman, a young business man of San Francisco, was solemnized Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock in St. Mark's Church.

Rev. Dr. Evans, of Grace Church, San Francisco, was the officiating clergyman. William Holt, organist of Grace Church, rendered Mendelssohn's wedding march on the arm of her father.

The bride was attended by Miss May Kastenbeck as maid of honor. Arthur Mast, of San Francisco, was best man.

The bride's gown was of white messaline silk elaborately hand embroidered and fashioned on princess style, carried a bouquet of lilies of the valley.

Following the ceremony at the church, a reception at the home was held. At a late hour the bride and groom were whisked away in an auto to start on their honeymoon trip, which will take them to Berkeley, upon their return Mr. and Mrs. Kaufman will reside in San Francisco, where a pretty home on Van Ness avenue is awaiting them.

Mr. Kaufman is manager of the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Company of San Francisco, and was educated in an eastern university.

Mrs. Kaufman is the granddaughter of William A. Woodward, at one time proprietor of the Alta California, and the wife of a newspaper of San Francisco. Since the fire, at which time she, with her parents, came to Berkeley to reside, she has made many friends among the younger set.

Monroe D. Green and Miss Maybelle Phillips were married yesterday afternoon at the home of the bride's mother in College avenue. Mr. Green and his bride left immediately for a honeymoon trip which will take them to Berkeley.

Mrs. Green is the daughter of Mrs. S. D. Phillips, and an interesting and attractive young woman. With her mother she has made her home in Berkeley since the fire destroyed their home in San Francisco. A large number of friends have made the engaged days most pleasant for Mrs. Green, who is a charming addition to the ranks of young matrons.

Edwin J. Williams, of Santa Rosa, and Miss Mary Cross, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William H. Cross, of 2121 Virginia street, were married at noon yesterday at the home of the bride's parents at the North Berkeley Congregational Church.

Mrs. Williams is a graduate of the University and since her graduation has taught in the Saratoga schools, where she spent her girlhood. The Rev. William Cross, minister of the church of the Saratoga Congregational Church fifteen years.

Shortly after the reception which followed the wedding, Mr. and Mrs. Williams departed for Santa Rosa, which city will be their future home.

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. R. Schmidt, who have enjoyed a six months' tour of Europe, have returned to their home in San Francisco. Their son, Herbert Schmidt, stayed at the Phi Gamma Delta house in this city during his parents' absence.

GIVES PARLOR PICNIC.

Mrs. Margaret Wiseman, 1800 Shattuck avenue, Wednesday afternoon entertained the members of the Woman's Relief Corps at a "parlor picnic."

The home was tastefully decorated with greens and flowers. Conversation occupied the afternoon hours until 5 o'clock, when the hostess invited her guests into the spacious dining room. There they found table cloths spread on the floor and bordered by ferns and greenery in true picnic style. Wooden plates and collapsible cups carried on the picnic effect. A delicious menu was served.

The guests were Mrs. Ira Gilchrist, Mrs. Emily Nichols, Mrs. Katherine Davies, Mrs. Hattie Kirkham, Mrs. Geneva Clark, Mrs. Eunice Lenders, Mrs. Harriet Miller, Mrs. Bertha Bull, Mrs. Esther Church, Mrs. Maud Cunningham, Mrs. Ida Hacht, Mrs. Minnie Kelsey, Mrs. Alice Lawrence, Mrs. Leah Beck, Mrs. Mabel Pitt, Mrs. Alice Cody, Mrs. Gertrude Kent, Mrs. Carrie Darling, Mrs. Laura Nelson, Mrs. Maiken, Mrs. Home, Mrs. Porter, Miss Shaw, Miss Ada Kelsey, Miss Eva C. Darling.

Mrs. Phillip R. Boone, president of the Home Club, has gone to her country home at Kennett. She is accompanied by her daughter, Mrs. R. L. Phelps, and little child, both of whom will be with Mrs. Boone the entire summer.

RECEIVE GIFTS.

Mr. and Mrs. George Whitaker Wednesday evening celebrated the tenth anniversary of their marriage at their home at the corner of Blake and Grove streets.

They were the recipients of many beautiful gifts. Whitaker's father, Mr. George Whitaker, was the donor of a handsome chair.

Berkeley Sharpshooters Anxious to Match Skill With Other Peace Guardians.

BERKELEY, June 21.—Members of the Berkeley Police Revolver and Rifle Target Team are anxiously awaiting challenges that seem a long time "coming." For several weeks they have been desiring challenges, but to these nothing has been heard in response. They are willing to meet any police team in this section of the State, preferably Oakland or Alameda teams, but the local team is still "on the outside" and the next response to their challenges are concerned.

There is only one way in which the local bluecoats can figure out the question. The outside teams must have read the reports made on their shooting and are not willing to concede success of defeat. Oakland team has several excellent shots in its makeup, and it would be interesting to have the two meet.

Sergeant Becker, manager of the Berkeley team, said today: "We would like to have a match shoot with Alameda, but if these fellows do not care to come here, Oakland will be the next team we want. We have hopes that something will turn up before long and competitive matches between police teams become regular things."

WANTS TO CO-OPERATE WITH BERKELEY

BERKELEY, June 21.—Secretary Wyckoff of the local Chamber of Commerce has received the following letter from the Los Angeles Information Bureau and will follow the lines asked in it. The letter reads:

"May I ask if you think it would be a good plan for us to co-operate with the business interests of your district for the purpose of creating a face-to-face representation in Los Angeles which will make known to the business degree the various advantages of Berkeley? Something which will at once give investors and tourists any information desired."

"If agreeable, we will co-operate at once in providing the most effective representation ever made—of real value to all concerned."

"Could you send me, if not too much trouble, copies of the literature available concerning your district or the names of firms who have issued attractive data? If I can be of any service to you here in Los Angeles it will be considered a pleasure. Yours respectfully,

A. E. POWER, President."

BACK FROM CORNELL.

William Boynton, who has been attending Cornell University since his graduation here, is in Berkeley for the summer months. He has taken a position under Professor Merriam at the University, and is now engaged in mounting specimens of the ichthyosaurus collected by Dr. Merriam in a recent expedition through Nevada.

Mrs. C. S. Newhall is visiting friends at San Rafael for a few days.

Mrs. Sherman T. Blake of 3027 Fulton street will leave tomorrow for Brookdale, Santa Cruz mountains.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Gardner, former residents of Berkeley, have moved into a pretty bungalow on East Oakland Heights.

Mr. and Mrs. John M. Doyle and family, of 2005 University avenue, left this morning for a two weeks' visit at Livermore.

Mrs. Richard Combs and daughters, the Misses Della and Elizabeth Combs, late of San Francisco, are setting up their household goods in their new home on Sixty-third street.

Daniel E. Harris left yesterday for a vacation trip which will take him in the country of San Francisco, to San Luis Obispo, Los Angeles, Santa Barbara, and Pismo beach.

Miss L. DeCamp of 2633 Regent street has returned from a pleasant trip to Los Angeles and other southern California cities. She was extensively entertained during her visit in the southern metropolises.

Will H. Fisher, editor and manager of the Humboldt Times, is here from Eureka on a business and pleasure trip. He is the guest of his sister, Mrs. B. M. Miller of 2014 Haste street. "Berkeley certainly is a very prosperous," said Fisher, who is a former San Francisco newspaper man, "and is certainly destined to keep up her place as one of the leading cities of the coast."

a pretty face, a good figure, but sooner or later learn that the healthy, happy, contented woman is most of all to be admired.

Women troubled with fainting spells, irregularities, nervous irritability, backache, the "blues," and those dreadful dragging sensations, cannot hope to be happy or popular, and advancement in either home, business or social life is impossible.

The cause of these troubles, however, yields quickly to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound made from native roots and herbs. It acts at once upon the organs affected and the nerve centers, dispelling effectually all those distressing symptoms. No other medicine in the country has received such unqualified endorsement or has such a record of cures of female ills as has

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Miss Emma Buntzler, of 621 State St., Schenectady, N. Y., writes: "For a long time I was troubled with a weakness which seemed to drain all my strength away. I had dull headaches, was nervous, irritable, and all worn out. Changing to read one of your advertisements of a case similar to mine cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, I decided to try it and I cannot express my gratitude for the benefit received. I am entirely well and feel like a new person."

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the most successful remedy for all forms of female complaints, Weak Back, Fainting and Dizziness, Irritability, Indigestion and Obstruction, and is invaluable in promoting the health and the change of life.

DRINKS BOTTLE OF CHLOROFORM

Frank Guthrie, Proprietor of San Jose Dye Works, Attempts Suicide.

SAN JOSE, June 21.—As the result of a self-administered dose of chloroform, Frank Guthrie, the proprietor of the Imperial Dye Works in San Jose, lies at his home at Tenth and Santa Clara streets, hovering between life and death, while Mrs. Jennie Cameron, one of his employees, sits waiting by his bedside, striving to assist the physicians in their efforts to bring him back to consciousness.

Guthrie had been despondent for several days, but his friends ascribed his condition to worry over business troubles and the illness of his wife, who had been bedridden nearly all winter.

Yesterday afternoon he left his shop and purchased a large bottle of chloroform. On reaching home he sent his wife and fifteen-year-old son down on some pretext and when they had left he called on Mr. Cameron and asked her to come up. He told her that he had taken poison and that she should never see him again. Thoroughly alarmed, Mrs. Cameron rushed to Guthrie's house, while the other employees of the dye works summoned police officers. When Mrs. Cameron reached him Guthrie was black in the face and vomiting, and soon after he became unconscious. Doctors Harris, Davey and Hine, who responded to the call administered antidotes and stimulants, but at a late hour last night Guthrie was still unconscious.

Mrs. Guthrie, who has been ill for a long time, is the father of three children by a former wife, and has two stepchildren.

FORGER "ELOPES" FROM COUNTY JAIL IN SOUTH

Prison Trusty Impersonates Officer and Drives Beyond City's Limits—Prepares to Kill Girl and Murder Self.

SAN BERNARDINO, June 21.—A genuine elopement from the county jail occurred yesterday afternoon. Bert Taylor, serving six months for forgery, eloped with Miss Jane Juanita Costello. The lovers took advantage of privileges given Taylor as trusty for frequent meetings in the jailer's office. Yesterday morning Taylor disappeared and was caught a block away in her home. He promised to discontinue these trips.

Shortly after noon Taylor slipped a revolver up his left trousers leg, and minus a coat, walked half a block, where he met Miss Costello with a car. They hurried to the residence of J. H. Verbrugg, Taylor impersonating an officer, and asked for overalls and a jumper, explaining that he was after a murderer. From there he telephoned for a horse and carriage and drove beyond the city limits, where the vehicle was sent back to town by a boy, while the fugitives concealed themselves beneath a low-hanging pepper tree.

Surrounded two hours later, Miss Costello declared that Taylor had taken her there to kill her, and had prepared to shoot when the officers surrounded them. Last night Taylor acted like a raving maniac. Officers believe he is insane and really meant to murder the girl and commit suicide.

OBTAIN JURY TO TRY CHIEF

Attorneys Claim San Jose Justice Did Not Have Power of Issuing Warrant.

SAN JOSE, June 21.—Chief of Police Thomas Carroll of San Jose was placed on trial before Superior Judge Welch yesterday morning on the charge of resisting the Sheriff's officers, on February 14th, when they attempted to arrest D. P. Narvaez, a policeman who was charged with buying votes. By the end of the forenoon a jury had been secured. At the afternoon session of the court Attorney Richards and Gabriel for the defense moved to dismiss the case on the ground that the justice who issued the warrant had no jurisdiction, and the argument was postponed until this morning, when Judge Welch will make his ruling on the case.

The Carroll case throws an interesting light on politics in San Jose. Carroll, who is also an opponent of the boss of the Republican machine in Santa Clara county, Arthur Langford, who was declared duly elected to the office of Sheriff after a bitter election contest with Frank Ross, belongs to the faction of D. P. Narvaez, who is also an opponent of the boss of the opposition to the Hayes crowd.

February, as a result of Grand Jury investigations of alleged election frauds, conducted by District Attorney Hayes, D. P. Narvaez, a member of the police force, was charged with buying votes for the Hayes ticket. Sheriff Langford's deputies attempted to serve the warrant Chief Carroll locked Narvaez in his office and refused to surrender him.

He also swore in special policemen to prevent the arrest of Narvaez. According to Carroll himself is now on trial for resisting officers of the law, but he will have to straighten out the clash between the city and county police forces.

MANY ALAMEDANS ARE VISITING AT BROOKDALE

ALAMEDA, June 21.—Miss Elizabeth Westgate, the well-known musician and pianist, is now at Brookdale, where she is visiting with friends. Miss Westgate is one of the Alamedans who go to Brookdale every year.

Miss Ruth Tisdale, daughter of Dr. C. L. Tisdale, is now at Brookdale, the guest of Miss Mary Henderson of Pasadena. This is the first year the Henderson family has spent at Brookdale, but they are delighted with the spot and think there is none equal for a summer outing.

G. H. Murdoch and her daughter, Marion, of 1809 San Antonio avenue, left yesterday for Brookdale. They will be gone four weeks.

Miss Marion Hall is to be hostess at a linen shower to be given Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. A. J. Buckles of Fairfield, Solano county, is president of the association, and E. D. Kennedy of this city is camp adjutant.

LUMBER ARRIVES. BERKELEY, June 21.—The barkentine Echo and the schooner James Poliph, direct from the northern lumber camps are anchored off Goat Island. The vessels are heavily loaded with a large shipment of lumber for the F. W. Foss Lumber Company of this city. The schooner and barkentine arrived some days ago. Foss has two launches at work towing the barges back and forth between his bulkhead and the lumber vessels.

IS PREPARING HISTORY OF BIG EARTHQUAKE

BERKELEY, June 21.—Professor H. Morse Stephens of the history department of the university is passing a busy summer. His time while at Berkeley is very largely occupied with the preparation of a history of the earthquake and fire of April, 1906. At intervals, however, he is called upon to leave Berkeley to deliver addresses at high school commencements, for which he is in great demand. On Wednesday last he took the train for the south, where he spoke that evening in Los Angeles before the school teachers of that city. This address was delivered at the invitation of Dr. E. C. Moore, formerly of the university faculty, now superintendent of schools in Los Angeles. Thursday evening Professor Stephens is to give the principal address on the program of the San Diego High School on Friday evening of the Long Beach High School.

SAN DIEGO BOND ISSUE IS DECLARED INVALID

SAN DIEGO, June 21.—San Diego voters will again be called on to decide whether or not the city shall issue bonds amounting to nearly $100,000. This increase in the bonded indebtedness was recently voted and several of the issues were sold at a fair premium subject to a decision as to the validity of the bonds, received an opinion from his attorney, H. W. O'Melveny of Los Angeles, that the procedure was not properly taken, and that the entire issue was invalid. The attorney's full opinion has not yet been received, but it is understood it hinges on the fact that two of the proposed issues were improperly joined.

If the opinion stands a new election will be called, as some of the improvements are greatly desired by the people, and the vote was bought in their favor.

SPECKELS BUYS LAND FOR ARIZONA RAILROAD

SAN DIEGO, June 21.—One of the largest land deals in the history of the state was consummated yesterday when the Speckels Lumber Company purchased 10,000 acres of land in the San Diego area for the proposed Arizona railroad.

FATHER THROWN FROM HIS HOME

Son Ejects Fresno Man After Quarrel and Charges Him With Insanity.

FRESNO, June 21.—George Mathieson, a respected citizen of the community and an employee of the Sanger Lumber Company, was forcibly ejected from his home yesterday by his son, assisted by his wife and a man named McKay. The son telephoned to the sheriff's office, saying that his father was insane and asking that an officer be sent to take him to jail. Two deputy sheriffs went to the Mathieson home and took Mathieson Sr. to jail. He claimed that he was not insane, but was forced to protect himself by force against the attack of his family and McKay, who wanted to put him out of his own home.

Mathieson claims that he had just returned from work and had entered his home, where his wife and little daughter, accompanied by the son and McKay, came in and asked what he was doing. McKay, who is known as a disreputable character and a disturber of the peace, Mathieson is looked upon as a peace-loving man, and the actions of the family against him are regarded as unaccountable.

BERKELEY PASTOR TO ENTER MISSION FIELD

BERKELEY, June 21.—The Rev. L. D. Rathbone, who for several years has filled the pulpit of the North Berkeley Congregational church, is to enter the mission field, and at a meeting of the congregation last evening his resignation was tendered and accepted. The resignation will take effect September 1, and meantime Dr. Rathbone will continue to discharge his duties as pastor, with the exception of the four Sundays in July, when he will be away on his mission trip. About three months the proposition to transfer Rev. Dr. Rathbone to the mission field has been under consideration by the Congregational Home Mission committee, but it was not until three weeks ago that it was definitely decided to request him to accept the position.

His new duties will consist of superintending the home missionary churches of California north of the San Joaquin river, which are about fifty, and his work will be directed by a committee of fifteen, which has charge of the expenditure of all the money.

PROFESSOR SEWARD TO HEAD ENGLISH COURSES

BERKELEY, June 21.—The revised announcement of English courses at the University of California summer session during the next two courses during the session. Types of Prose Narrative Literature.—A study of selected specimens covering a wide range of prose narratives—travel, autobiography, fiction, relating literary methods and the development of style to the varying purposes of narrative writing. Lectures with assigned reading and reports.

Aspects of Word Study.—Investigation in the history to the study of literature and to problems of modern literature. Great literature in English. Words and Their Ways in English Speech. Open by permission to a limited number of qualified students.

REGISTRATION FALLS BEHIND AVERAGE

BERKELEY, June 21.—Up to last night registration for the summer session at the University was 231 as against 369 at this time last year. The tendency according to the authorities is to register later this year. The meeting of the National Education Association at Los Angeles has attracted thousands of teachers all over the State who usually take a course at the University summer school, and these students will follow the adjournment of the N. E. A.

Regular registration for the summer school begins on June 22 and ends June 24, the date of the opening of the term. Professor H. B. Fisher, department of philosophy is dean of the summer school.

Before the session is well under way a registration of more than 700 is expected.

UNIVERSITY ISSUES ADMISSION CARDS

BERKELEY, June 21.—For the convenience of visitors who may desire to attend only a few lectures during the summer session, the university issues a card which entitles the holder to admission to individual lectures or recitations at twenty-five cents for each exercise. These cards may be purchased at the secretary's office in California Hall. Not less than four such tickets will be sold at any one time.

SHERIFF RACES OUT OF MEXICO WITH PRISONERS

Man Who Attacked Young Girl at Crockett Is at Last Made Prisoner With Brother and Girl.

MARTINEZ, June 21.—Speeding out of Mexico, as fast as steam can carry him, Sheriff R. R. Veale of Contra Costa county is returning with three prisoners, after having made one of the cleverest captures ever recorded in the criminal annals of the west. The names of the prisoners are John Blasko, Mrs. John Blasko and Bessie Poring, and the sheriff is hastening to have them here in time for a trial in the superior court.

John Blasko, in August 1906, was living with his wife, Maria Blasko, at Crockett. With them was a niece of the wife, Bessie Poring. On August 2, Blasko sent his wife to buy wine and in her absence attacked the young girl. Mrs. Blasko swore to a complaint against her husband and he was held to answer before the superior court.

The accused man was put in the county jail at Martinez and his wife came here with the girl, who was placed in the keeping of M. L. Bless. Mrs. Blasko came to regret that she had sworn to a complaint against her husband, and while she was in this predicament, her brother, Stephen Blasko, brother of the man who was arrested, appeared on the scene and under the pretense that he was going to take Bessie to Oakland to buy her some new clothing, abducted her and led to Ojuela, Durango, Mexico. At Blasko's trial, District Attorney H. V. Alvarado was handicapped as a result. The jury stood 10 to 2 for conviction.

Sheriff Veale made every effort to get track of the girl and Stephen Blasko, but his efforts were fruitless. Finally the sheriff and the district attorney decided to let John Blasko out on bail in the hope that he would lead them to the girl. Blasko did what he was expected to do and disappeared with his wife from Martinez on May 26.

Meantime the inhabitants of the Durango town, suspecting the relations of Stephen Blasko with the girl, gave him a severe beating, 50 lashes making the blood flow. He left and the girl was taken to a hospital there. Later, however, Stephen Blasko returned to Durango and stole the girl and made his way to El Paso, Texas. There Stephen was arrested on a telegram from Sheriff Veale. The authorities made the mistake of letting the girl go and she again fell into the hands of John Blasko, who had just arrived from Martinez to join his brother. John at once fled with the girl to Chihuahua, Mexico, and there Sheriff Veale arrested him, together with Mrs. Blasko and the girl. At El Paso Stephen Blasko will be taken into the party of prisoners.

LOSS OF CHILD AFFECTS MIND

Legal Fight for Little Girl Involves Pittsburg Capitalist.

SAN BERNARDINO, June 21.—Mrs. Rena M. Luttrell has come all the way from Pittsburg for a 1-year-old niece, Kathryn Good, hoping that the child's presence will aid in restoring the reason of her mother, Mrs. Martha A. Good, confined in an asylum at Dixmont, Pennsylvania. Mrs. Y. Stewart, who has reared the child, refuses Mrs. Luttrell possession. A fight for the guardianship is brewing, which is likely to develop the pitiful story of a woman's downfall.

Mrs. Luttrell charges that Mrs. Stewart's interest in the child is limited to $20 paid monthly by a wealthy Pittsburg man. As the little girl's aunt, Mrs. Luttrell asserts a prior right. She has been determined to make an earnest fight, though last evening a mysterious dispatch was received from Pittsburg calling a temporary halt to the proceedings, the man who has been paying for the child's support willing that he hopes to settle the dispute without court proceedings.

Who the wealthy individual is, who relation he has to the girl, why such strenuous efforts are being made to lurch the affair, are inexplicable puzzles which give promise of a sensation if the case goes to trial before the Superior Court.

STEAMER CAPTAIN IS ALAMEDA MAN

ALAMEDA, June 21.—Captain Zaddart of the steamer Santa Barbara, which was disabled off Point Reyes, is a resident of this city. With his wife and three children he resides at 2051 Euclid avenue while on land. On board the Santa Barbara are Mrs. Zaddart and the three children. They were on the way to Seattle when the accident occurred and the boat was taken back to San Francisco.

WILL WAGE WAR ON POOLROOMS

Massmeeting of Marin County Citizens to Plan Campaign.

SAN RAFAEL, June 21.—R. J. Davis, late foreman of the Marin county Grand Jury, has issued a call for a meeting of citizens at 8:15 o'clock, Friday evening, in Masonic Hall, in this city, under the auspices of the Marin County Anti-Poolroom League. The meeting is for the purpose of perfecting the organization to ratify the action of District Attorney Boyd in proceeding against the poolrooms and to plan to provide the necessary funds to finance the fight.

Davis, in a circular letter, said the closing of poolrooms means a great deal to Marin county, that he feels that every one with the interest of Marin at heart should attend the meeting and give support to the fight against these poolrooms.

BOYS HAVE NARROW ESCAPE FROM DEATH

SAUSALITO, June 21.—Only for the timely assistance of Captain Johnson of the North Shore ferryboat Tamalpais this afternoon, two young lads named Patterson and Bottoms, sons of army officers stationed at Port Baker, would have been drowned in heavy seas off Raccoon straits. The boys had left Port Baker in a small boat and were being blown by a sea, and could not handle it in the heavy wind which prevailed. The sail was torn and the boat began to fill.

The boys signaled for assistance and the steamer Tamalpais came to them. A line was passed out and made fast to their smaller craft and the boat towed to Sausalito. The boys refused to discuss the affair.

EPWORTHIANS GATHER AT STATE CONVENTION

SANTA ROSA, June 21.—Hundreds of delegates are here attending the sixteenth annual conference of the California State Epworth League, which is in session at the Methodist Episcopal Church in Santa Rosa. The conference is arranged for each session of the conference, which will last until Saturday at noon. During Saturday afternoon an excursion will be run to Guerneville to give the delegates and visitors an opportunity to see the famous Lakeview Hotel. The sessions of the conference will be closed Sunday evening with special services.

The meeting was called to order by President J. Landrum Graham. One of the principal speakers yesterday was Professor John W. Fletcher of Napa, who recently arrived on the coast to take charge of a school soon to be established by the denomination at Leland. Rev. C. R. Douglas delivered an address last night.

SAN FRANCISCO WEDS.

SANTA ROSA, June 21.—Rudolph Schleuter, a well-known San Francisco business man, manager of the Fredericks-Schleuter Furniture Company, was married here yesterday to Miss Mamie Coffey, formerly of this city. The Rev. A. L. Buisson was the officiating priest.

Reception was held at the home of the bride's parents and a dinner served the bridal party and families.

Schmitz and Gallagher as Examples.

A contemporary points to the plight of Eugene E. Schmitz as an object lesson for American youth. Convicted of felony, degraded from his high office and thrust into jail, it says Schmitz is a melancholy example of the fate in store for men who betray public trust.

But while citing examples to point a moral for the growing generation, why omit mention of James L. Gallagher, installed in the high position to which Schmitz was elected, and entrusted with the reins of authority? The same influences that pulled Schmitz down and cast him into jail have kept Gallagher out of prison and elevated him to the chief seat of power and honor in the community. No moral drawn from the career and downfall of Schmitz can be complete unless it include the obverse as portrayed in the career and elevation of Gallagher.

If Schmitz has furnished an example for young men to shun, what shall be said of the example of James L. Gallagher, acting mayor of San Francisco? Seated high in a place of honor and trust, under the protecting arm of justice, without fear of courts, juries and jails, Gallagher presents an inspiring spectacle.

If Schmitz is suffering the inevitable penalties for betrayal of public trust, Gallagher is reaping the rewards of duty nobly performed, of integrity and fidelity in the discharge of the responsibilities entrusted to him by the people.

While instructing American youth in regard to the duties and rewards of good citizenship, and impressing upon their plastic minds the ancient maxim that honesty is the best policy, the bright as well as the dark side of the shield should be shown. If we point to the plight of Schmitz as a proof that punishment awaits corruption in office, shall we omit to point, also, the promotion and security of Gallagher as a proof that dignity and immunity are the rewards of virtue?

Health and prosperity to Gallagher the Good! Down with Schmitz the Base! So shall civic righteousness assert itself to punish the wicked and reward the virtuous.

There seems to be some delay in electing a new captain of the thieves in the San Francisco Board of Supervisors.

It would perhaps be regarded in some quarters as a gross violation of the proprieties to intimate that Secretary Taft's sudden illness after eating a hearty dinner was merely a case of old-fashioned bellyache.

The Reno Gazette hopes Joaquin Miller will get elected to the Senate from Oregon. Why not elect him from Nevada? The Sagebrush State is used to sending Californians to represent it in the Senate.

It is a penal offence in Germany to speak disrespectfully of the Kaiser, but every citizen has a right to go to law with His Imperial Majesty in regard to property rights, and the monarch is not infrequently haled into court by his aggrieved subjects. Nor does he receive any favors from the judiciary. He has been recently worsted in four lawsuits, the latest one growing out of his attempt to dispossess an innkeeper on the imperial estate at Rominton. Evidently the Kaiser's big stick does not overawe the German courts, however much it may strike terror in nations.

That Pecksniff of California journalism, the Fresno Republican, has undertaken to identify every newspaper or individual that tells the truth about the graft crusade in San Francisco and the persons who have assumed charge of it with the corruptionists. The Republican sees nothing wrong in bargaining with thieves and compounding felony or with the theory that only the innocent are entitled to a fair trial. It is noted for preaching high ideals and falling down on them whenever the issue is concretely presented. It reminds one of a turkey sailing around in the blue empyrean engaged in lofty meditation on the sins and infirmities of those beneath only to be found presently down on the ground gorging itself with carrion. Up to a certain stage in political campaigns the Republican flies high in clean atmosphere, but at the finish it is always found hustling amid the stench and offal it pretends to abhor.

Publicity for Railroad Accidents.

THE TRIBUNE has received the following letter from Paul Shoup, Assistant General Passenger Agent of the Southern Pacific Company, under date of June 18:

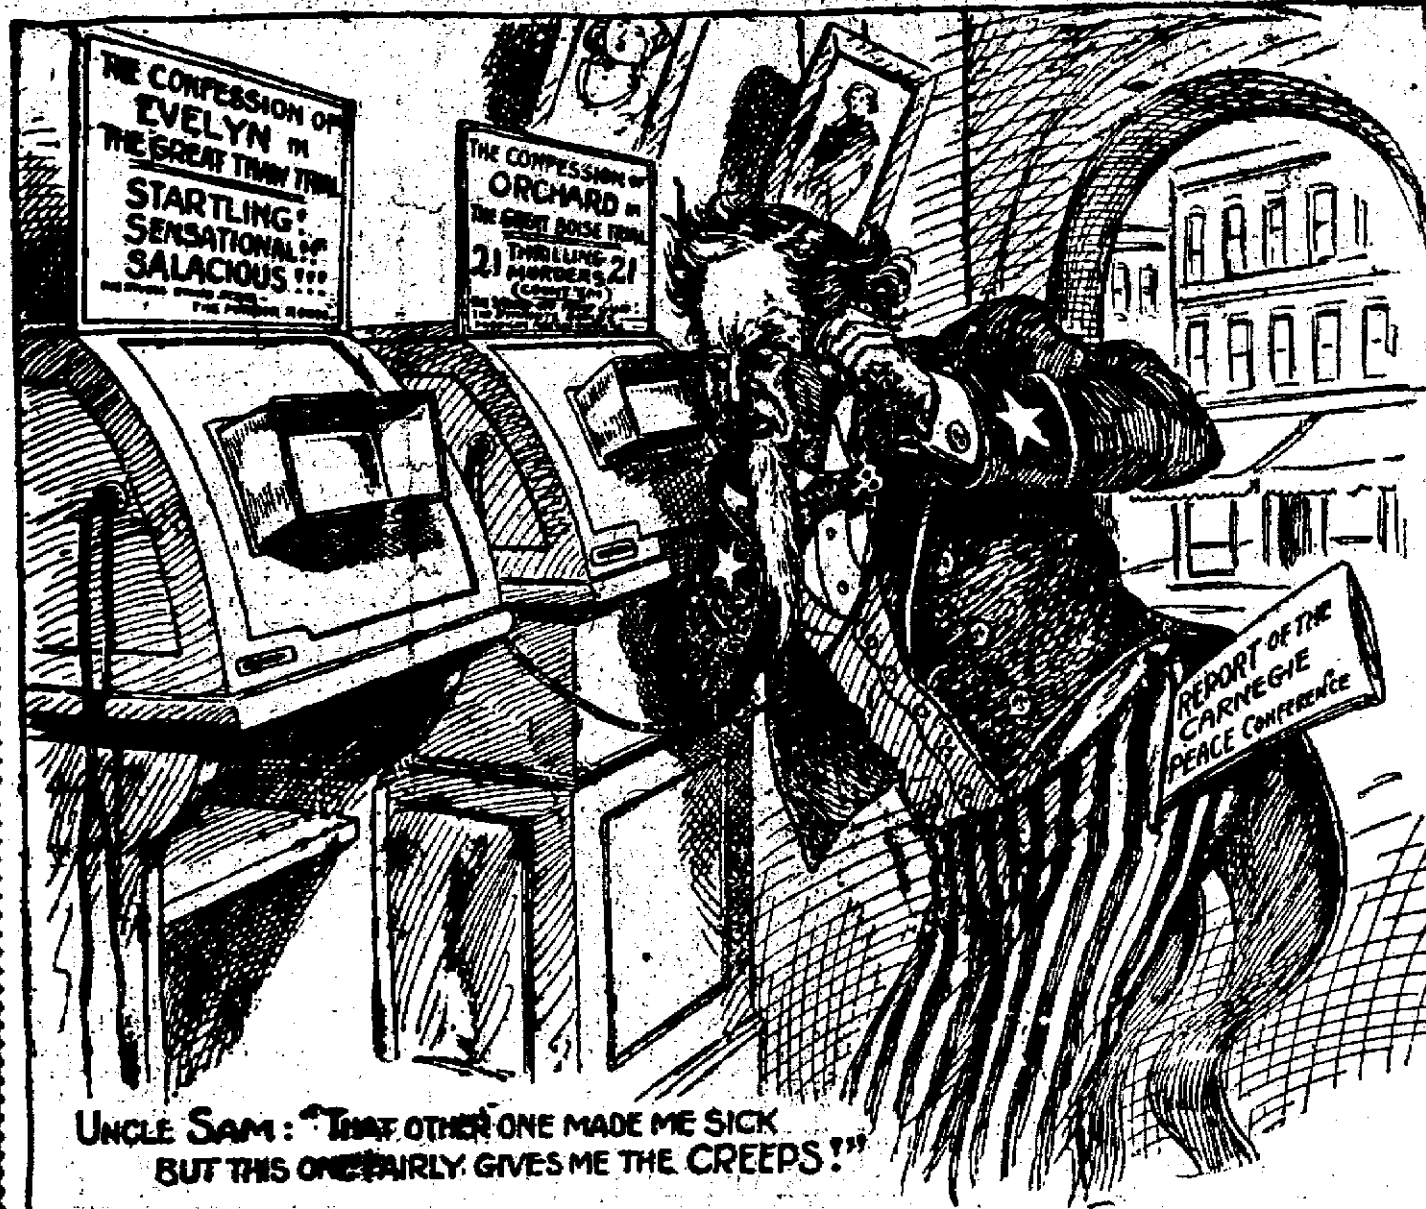

"Hereafter it will be the policy of the Southern Pacific Company to make public the official reports in relation to accidents on our line. All information that our management possesses in regard to the cause of accidents will thus be made public. Of course, official reports cannot follow immediately upon the heels of the trouble, but are rendered just as promptly as possible after the board of investigation gives its findings.

"I do not suppose that the authenticity or reliability of these reports will be questioned, but if there should be any question, we are quite willing to have an impartial judge selected, to whom the fullest facilities will be afforded to determine whether or not the report as rendered be correct. In case of any such dispute the representatives of THE TRIBUNE will be afforded every facility at the command of our management to help them determine the truth."

The decision to promptly make public the cause of all accidents, and to facilitate inquiry by the newspapers is a wise one. It will put the railroad on more cordial terms with its patrons and the newspapers, and tend to improve the methods of operation. The public has an indubitable right to know the cause of accidents on transportation lines, because such accidents may be due to criminal negligence or criminal intent.

It is of course to the interest of common carriers that accidents should be prevented, and full publicity will aid in prevention. It will also reassure the traveling public. Mystery and concealment create uneasiness and give ground for suspicion. Moreover, the suppression of public knowledge often causes railway companies to be blamed for things for which they are not responsible and which they do their utmost to guard against.

THE WORST YET!

Let Us Have a Square Deal.

"Let no guilty man escape!" exclaims the Sacramento Bee, echoing the memorable endorsement President Grant wrote on Secretary Bristow's report respecting the operations of the Whisky Ring. Amen to that. Let the administration of justice be fair and impartial as well as stern, and every good citizen will rejoice.

But it is well to remember what befell in regard to the Whisky Ring. Justice began to play favorite and make scapegoats, and political intrigue entered into both prosecution and defense, and the result was that only two important members of the gang were convicted, and President Grant pardoned these because their guiltier associates were permitted to escape punishment.

Let no guilty man escape is a good motto to follow, but it is not exactly wise to assume that every man the chief organizer of political vice and corruption points his dirty finger at is guilty. Justice nor political purity will not be served by assuming that every person he accuses under promise of immunity is guilty in advance of trial or more convincing proof, and that a trial shall be no more than a ratification of Ruef's accusation.

Grant's sententious maxim is all the stronger by adding President Roosevelt's favorite maxim, "Let us have a square deal." That is what San Francisco needs above all other things, and a square deal is impossible where the truth about certain men and proceedings is under ban.

And while extraordinary and anomalous conditions require drastic and somewhat irregular treatment, that treatment will be unavailing to purge San Francisco of thievery and misgovernment if it be administered in a spirit of quackery or prescribed with any motive other than punishing crime and restoring decent and orderly government to the city in accordance with law and the popular will.

Chips From Other Blocks

The President is having trouble in making the "square deal" go round.

Dr. Roosevelt's Publicity Pills are warranted to cure railroad and corporation ills.

The fool-killer might do well to watch the canyons closely these days for the careless fellow with the match.

Japan may well take notice that the champion shooters in the United States Navy are now stationed in the Pacific.

In other words, the Roosevelt policy is to put railroad stocks in a sieve and eliminate the part that runs through.

The man who sees life through the wineglass lacks a vision straight enough to "teach the young idea how to shoot."

The United States will vigorously object to Japanese coming into this country ostensibly in good faith, but in reality on spurious passports.

The man who stands before the bar is not the man to stand behind the teacher's desk, is the wise way Indiana has of looking at the matter.

SPANKED BOY KILLS MOTHER

11-Year-Old Lad Shoots His Parent Twice to Assure Death.

BASSETT, Neb., June 21.—Because his mother had spanked him, Calif. McCoy, aged 11 years, shot and instantly killed her at their farm, nine miles north of here. Bearing she was not dead, he fired a second bullet into her body.

At first it was presumed the shooting was accidental, but today the child admitted his crime. He said that his mother had punished him the day before, and he decided to be revenged. He secured a revolver from the house and when nobody else was near slipped up behind his mother and fired a shot into her head. She fell dead, but he fired the other shot into her body. Mrs. McCoy was a widow and lived with her five children on a homestead. The child is in the Sheriff's custody.

Near-Nature Expert Swears Hornets Ate His Corn Beef and Cabbage.

NEW YORK, June 21.—Patrolman Patrick Connors, of the West One Hundred and Twenty-fifth street police station, was something of a farmer in the old country, and decided about the time spring should have started in this country to try and farm it here. He rented a cottage and a piece of ground at Moshulu and Riverdale avenues.

Every one trading diamonds for garden truck knows how well farmers in this section have prospered this year, but that is another story. Connors was satisfied with the outlook until his cottage was filled with bees. They came down the chimney. There were bees for breakfast, dinner and supper, and when the ice-box was left open Connors swears (President Roosevelt please take notice) that they ate the corned-beef and cabbage.

Connors was advised to smoke them out by burning tar. The family quit sleeping under wire screens for one night and slept elsewhere. Then they returned, but the bees had beaten them back. Connors called in a policeman friend who qualified as an expert. He looked the bees over. "Hornets," said his friend. "Burn red pepper." Connors burned red pepper and the family stayed away only to come back and find the bees and hornets looking a little fatter and apparently happier. The members of the family are now sleeping surrounded by wire netting, and any one with a real cure for bees or hornets may address Connors at the police station. Unless the family gets relief soon the cottage will be to let.

WEDS MAN SHE HAD SEEN BUT TWICE; DIDN'T TELL PA

Parents Think They Should Have Been Introduced to New Son-in-Law Before the Ceremony.

"There was he waiting at the church," said Mrs. Joseph Rose yesterday afternoon at the marriage license counter of the County Clerk's office after she learned that her nineteen-year-old daughter, Edith, had obtained a marriage license to be united with Refno Fars, a young man of twenty-five years.

Mrs. Rose had little grounds upon which to base her parental objections, except the fact that the bridegroom had seen his prospective bride but twice. Once was at the church where they had a date one evening and the occasion of their other interview was a night or two ago. Rose, Sr., had never seen the man who has brought himself into the family, which is another little formality that should have been adhered to, according to Mrs. Rose.

When Edith left home yesterday for the elopement, she did not take her gold watch with her. What was more, she dressed in her plain working clothes, leaving silks at home to avert suspicion.

"We don't oppose the girl's marriage, only my husband would like to meet his new son-in-law," said Mrs. Rose yesterday.

Fars is connected with a contracting firm that has charge of the installation of sewer pipes in this city.

COLLEGE GIRLS MUST SHUN SPONTANEOUS LOVE HOME

Harvard Man's Novel Retreat Falls Under Ban of Wellesley Faculty After Student Becomes Convert.

BOSTON, Mass., July 21.—(Exclusive dispatch.)—The wealthy and charming young women of Wellesley College have been forbidden to visit Frederick Reed, Harvard graduate and schemer of both President Roosevelt and Governor Guild, at his "home of spontaneous love," where, he says, the spirit rules supreme and governs every wish and movement.

But Reed is not worrying at his handsome estate, Overbrook, where he was found today by a reporter, wearing blue jeans and rubber boots, and digging in a brook, while several attractive women were lying about on the soft green grass, each and every one of them answering the impulses "imparted to them by the spirits."

Reed was a teacher in the Boston Latin School, but resigned three years ago to found his "spirit" castle. He is a follower of Jacob Bellhart and has made frequent pilgrimages to the home of this cult at Ingleside, Ill.

"We live as we are prompted," said Reed. "God moves us according to some purpose. If I wake up at 4 o'clock in the morning and the spirit tells me to climb a tree, I climb a tree. If it tells me to dig in a brook, I dig in a brook."

"This affair with Wellesley College came when a lovesick girl came here to follow my teachings. A man came with her. They lived here until the college authorities and her folks made such a fuss that they were married."

"The spirit sent them here, and it was the doing of God. We open our doors to any one. We now have a Harvard professor and several prominent business men who spend half their time here."

Millionaire Turfman Meets Difficulties in Quest of Minister to Make Ben-nings Belle His Bride.

WASHINGTON, June 21.—Miss Irma Trent, a beautiful Washington girl, whose parents are in moderate circumstances, was married last Saturday to R. L. Thomas, a millionaire turfman. The circumstances surrounding the marriage are most romantic.

Mr. Thomas met his bride at Benning last October. It was Miss Trent's first visit to the racetrack, where she went under the chaperonage of a friend. Mr. Thomas was in the grandstand, and was attracted to the girl, whose chaperon proved to be an old friend of his as well. An introduction followed, and it was manifestly a case of love at first sight. A correspondence ensued, and finally Mr. Thomas proposed and was accepted.

On Saturday morning Mr. Thomas started out in search of a minister. He visited eight rectories, only to find that the ministers were either ill, out of town or away on business. The ninth had gone to Jamestown, the tenth was at a missionary meeting, the eleventh had gone to a funeral, and the twelfth to a wedding. The thirteenth, fourteenth and fifteenth were visited without success, and finally, when Mr. Thomas was ready to engage the services of a justice of the peace, Dr. Wallace Radcliffe was found, and in a short time Miss Trent was Mr. Thomas' bride.

Mr. Thomas is 43 years old, and Miss Trent, who is his second wife, is 22.

SOCIETY: GOSSIP ABOUT SMART SET

A new skating club has been organized to meet Thursday evenings during the summer at Idora Park skating rink. The first meeting of what promises to be a successful series was held last evening, and it is expected that about fifty members will enjoy these informal weekly meetings.

The membership includes many of the younger set from the Lakeside Skating Club, which has just closed its season. Among those who will enjoy the informal out-door skating are Miss Inez Estudillo, Miss Lucy Cushing, Miss Agnes Cushing, Mrs. E. Moore, Joe Rosborough, Edward Aiken, Allen Gillespie, Miss Virginia Goodcell, and many others.

LUNCHEON GUESTS.

Mrs. N. W. Tucker entertained today at a luncheon given at her home on Bay Vista avenue for Mrs. Cora E. Jones, president of the Oakland Club, and Mrs. Spencer, president of the Hill Club.

Among the guests were Mrs. Frank J. Melbourne, Mrs. T. S. Baker, Mrs. Arthur Lincoln Adams, Mrs. William MacDonald, Mrs. John N. Chase, Mrs. Elizabeth Chambers, Mrs. Charles A. Black, Mrs. Bennett, Mrs. M. E. Wilson, Mrs. Howard Shinn and Mrs. August Hanneberg. After the discussion of the menu, an informal literary program was enjoyed.

ENGAGEMENT NEWS.

The engagement is announced of Miss Ruth Katharine Davis to Dr. Clarence Quinan. The couple have friends on both sides of the bay, and there are many good wishes and congratulations for them. Miss Davis, a charming girl, is the daughter of Mrs. Katharine Kinkead Davis, a granddaughter of the well-known mining man, James H. Kinkead, and a grandniece of the late John H. Kinkead, former governor of Nevada. She is very young, having just completed a course at Mills College, and has not yet been formally presented to society. She and her mother make their home at Claymont court, Berkeley.

Dr. Quinan is a member of the well-known Quinan family, which has been so prominent here for some years, and is a relative of the Shepard family of Oakland. He is one of the leading men of his profession in San Francisco.

Their wedding will probably be an event of the early fall, but no details are arranged as yet.

BURNHAM-BLEWETT.

The wedding of Miss Mertie Verhelf Burnham and William Blewett took place last evening at the residence of the bride's parents at 183 East Moss avenue in the presence of about seventy-five guests, intimate friends of the contracting parties.

The house was decorated in an appropriate manner for the occasion. The marriage service was performed by the Rev. E. R. Dille, pastor of the First Methodist Church, under a bower of greens and sweet peas, the bride and groom standing under a marriage bell of white sweet peas. A pleasant feature of the service was the fact that the Rev. Dr. Dille, twenty-four years

CHURCH WEDDING.

The marriage of Miss Edna Price and Archie F. Boland will take place next Wednesday evening in the church of the Advent, East Oakland.

The service will be read by Rev. J. F. Trivett, rector at the church, in the presence of several hundred friends. Attending Miss Price as maid of honor will be Miss Ethel Price. The brides-

NAME ON ROLL OF PAPER WINS HUSBAND FOR GIRL

Printing Foreman Notices Inscription and Begins Correspondence Which Results in Marriage.

LOCK HAVEN, Pa., June 21.—Through writing her name and address on one of the large rolls of paper manufactured by the New York and Pennsylvania Company, in this city, a young woman of this city became the bride in a wedding celebrated here today.

Miss Bertha E. Cummings, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Cummings, last fall was employed in the shipping department at the mill, and one day scribbled her name on one of the large rolls of paper before it was loaded into the cars. This particular roll found its way to Brooklyn, N. Y., and the inscription discovered by Andrew J. Fruey, foreman of a printing house. A correspondence ensued, and young Fruey visited this city during the holidays.

Both were favorably impressed, and an engagement followed, which ended in the marriage today. The pair left this afternoon for Brooklyn.

NO MAIDS FOR CHILDREN

Mrs. Clarence Mackay is the patron child for which a maid attended to every want and the child taught to wait on itself. Among the fashionable folk of several cities nurses and maids, except for little ones under seven, are growing rarer. Mrs. Roosevelt never permitted her children to receive assistance from maids or nurses after they became old enough to dress themselves. Ethel Roosevelt, sweet 16 and home in her own maid and keeps her

HUSBAND AND WIFE DIFFER SIX YEARS ON WEDDING-DATE

Judge Halts Divorce Suit to Ascertain When Marriage Ceremony Was Really Performed.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 21.—"Dear Husband: I could not lie to you; it was meant to be this way. If you don't give me my freedom, it will all be wrong. If I loved you, this man would give me up. He is all the world to me. I love him. Why, I simply worship him. I thought I could give him up, but it is useless. I love him too much. Please let me get the divorce."

"He is so grand, so good. I know you will curse me; that you will write me a cruel, abusive letter. I feel it, dear. But that will be part of my punishment. I like you, dear, and you know it; but you must understand that world, for you love me, and I know it. And I have prayed that you would learn to hate me. How I prayed that I would not love him."

This baring of a wife's soul to a husband is part of a letter offered in evidence by the counsel of John P. Laffer in defending him against an action for divorce brought by Mrs. Maud Laffer. It was disclosed in a general way by Laffer's lawyers, but not read by the court, as one of the queerest complications that have arisen in divorce suits before Judge Hunt caused him to halt the proceedings for two months to verify the statements of the plaintiff.

DIFFER ON DATE OF WEDDING.

Mrs. Laffer testified that she married the defendant in Vancouver on October 28, 1898, and that, convinced that he was killed in Arizona in March, 1899, she went into mourning for him for a year. She said he had deserted her in Seattle on February 25, 1899. Her husband produced a certified copy of a marriage certificate showing the wedding took place on October 27, 1904, and it was to settle these peculiar discrepancies that the case was laid over.

Mrs. Laffer says that notice of her husband's death was published in newspapers and that she received a trunkful of his clothes from Los Angeles. She admitted, however, that she subsequently met her husband on the street in this city. There was much letter writing between the two, and the woman produced one letter which Judge Hunt declared to be brutal, in which the husband threatened his wife with "showing her life up from top to bottom."

Judge Hunt demanded that counsel on both sides investigate the difference in the dates of the wedding as given by the parties to the suit, and scored the husband for failing to make this point in his answer to the original bill, instead of waiting to come into court with the certificate. He also said that the matter was in such a state that the court could not believe the testimony of the woman until there was certainty about the wedding date.

The letter, which was written on March 20 last, and is of sixteen pages, closely written, says in part:

"I did not know how much I loved him until his poor old mother came and told me how much her only son loved me, a woman once without a name, a creature brought up in rough fashion, ill-bred and uncouth. Then I told them both I could not bear to be alone with him."

"MY LIFE IN YOUR HANDS."

"You are such a big, powerful man. You hold my life in your hands—good hands; but my life is a poor life and my only sin has been that I have let you love me too much."

"I pray so, for if I cannot live right before God and the world as this man's wife, I shall live wrong before the world and right before God. He said he would never give me up. I love him with all my soul, all my life. I shall not give him up as long as I live."

"It's all in your big hands; I shall not see him until I hear from you; until the verdict is given. Today I saw his back on the street; I thought how gladly I would die for him."

"It would be a sin to live with you and love some one else, but oh, I love him so much more than my life."

"I loved you, or I thought I did. I did not know what love was; now I am doing what I think is right. If you don't give me my freedom, it will all be wrong. I am treating you fair, dear, for I know you don't love me as I love this man. No one could. I am pleading to you, a good man, with a heart of gold, a man whom I shall always respect. If you agree to the divorce, don't come here; I will put before God and the world as this man in the application here and we will have no trouble getting it."

"I would give up all my friends, everything except the church, for the man, but he will not ask it of me."

"He loves me soul and body."

"Give me my verdict; write soon."

WIDOW DIES AND LEAVES RECORD-BREAKING FAMILY

Wisconsin Woman Mothers Twenty-Four Children and One Hundred and Twenty-Six Grand Children.

APPLETON, Wis., June 21.—Mrs. Anton Ver Kellen of Kaukauna has been left a widow at the age of 55 years, with twenty-four children, 126 grandchildren and seventeen great-grandchildren.

Mrs. Ver Kellen is the mother of but twelve children, however, but she is believed to be at the head of the largest family in the United States. When she married Mr. Ver Kellen he was a widower with twelve children, and she not only brought up her step-children, but raised an even dozen of her own, all of the children living and thirteen of them being married. There are ten girls and fourteen boys in the family.

Ver Kellen died recently of pneumonia, and, with the exception of two daughters-in-law and three great-grandchildren, every member of this remarkable family attended the funeral. All live within a radius of fifteen miles of Kaukauna.

WOMEN

What rights have women?
What are they
But blades of grass
Dried into hay?

What rights have women?
What are they
But weaker vessels
Made of clay?

What rights have women?
Though displayed
As made the last they Won't stay maid.

What rights have women?
Oh, great Scott!
The "six best sellers"
Show you what.

What rights have women?

THE PLAY.

He was the villain in the play,
The lovely heroine she.
Night after night she had to say:
"Lay not your evil hands on me!"
And people hissed him for the way
He showed his deep-dyed villainy.
He was the villain of the play,
The lovely heroine was she.

His wife she was, and both were glad.
Behind the scenes they billed and cooed,
She gave him all the love she had,
And he with kindness was imbued.
Within their joyful hearts no sad
Misgivings ever might intrude.
His wife she was, and both were glad—
Behind the scenes they billed and cooed.

The world's a stage and life's a play
Wherein all people have their parts;
But 'tis behind the scenes that they
Too often sit with aching hearts.
Before the footlights they are gay,
Though nursing hate and killing spurs.
The world's a stage and life's a play
Wherein all people have their parts.

previous had performed the ceremony at the marriage of the bride's parents, and among the invited guests on the occasion of Miss Burnham's marriage was the bridesmaid who attended the marriage of the bride's father and mother.

The bride was attended by Miss Agnes Christien and the bridal party was preceded by Miss Leota Burnham, a cousin of the bride, who acted as flower girl. The groom was attended by his brother, Fred Bennett. Miss Katherine Hulse presided at the piano.

Refreshments were served and the young people were the recipients of a number of valuable and useful presents.

The couple departed this morning for Los Angeles, where the honeymoon will be spent, and upon their return they will reside in Oakland.

The bride is the daughter of Chief Office Deputy United States Marshal George H. Burnham, and the groom is a member of the stationery firm of P. A. Needham & Company at Berkeley.

SUMMER PLANS.

Mrs. Jabbah Clement will close her home in East Oakland this month and will spend the summer with her mother, Mrs. C. M. Dougherty, at the country home of the family near Pleasanton. Mrs. Dougherty and her son, J. Wilt Dougherty, are planning a trip to Yosemite later in the season.

QUIETLY MARRIED.

The marriage of Judge S. W. McCaslin, a prominent jurist of Sacramento, and Mrs. S. A. Barnes, the wealthy widow of former Mayor Barnes, of Boston, took place quietly last evening at the Crellin Hotel.

Judge McCaslin and Mrs. Barnes met several years ago in connection with legal business. Mrs. Barnes made frequent trips to California, where she has many friends and is prominent socially. After meeting on the common ground of lawyer and client several times and keeping up a correspondence when separated by the expanse of the continent, the professional acquaintance ripened into love, they concluded to get married quietly.

Mrs. Barnes arrived here several days ago and visited with friends. Judge McCaslin made preparations for an absence on legal business and met her in this city yesterday. With him came Rev. Dr. G. T. Willis, rector of the Presbyterian Church of Sacramento. The couple were married in a private room of the hotel suit and it was several hours before the news leaked out. The bride and groom left tonight for the East on their honeymoon and will spend a month at Cape Cod, where Mrs. McCaslin has a summer cottage.

HAYDN'S GRAVE.

VIENNA, June 21.—After resting for nearly ninety years at Eisenstadt, in Hungary, the bones of Joseph Haydn are to be brought to Vienna and reinterred in a "Grave of Honor" in the great Central Cemetery, in close proximity to the monuments erected to Beethoven, Mozart, Schubert and other great composers. The municipality of Vienna has undertaken this task and will defray the cost. Haydn died in Vienna in 1809 and was buried in one of the small district cemeteries. The spot was marked by a plain stone bearing only his name and the words, "Non omnis moriar." Eleven years afterward the then head of the noble family of Esterhazy caused the remains to be removed to his beautiful estate at Eisenstadt, where Haydn had lived for thirty years as conductor of the prince's private orchestra. Most of his compositions were produced for the first time in a theater in the park there. The Esterhazys still maintain their own orchestra, and the prince brought it to Marienbad last summer to play at a dinner which was given to King Edward.

COCKFIGHT AT SOIREE.

PARIS, June 21.—Paris was shocked this week to learn that the chief attraction at a soiree given by a fashionable matron the other day was nothing more nor less than a cockfight. There were only two birds, and one was killed. Several thousand francs changed hands.

DUCK HAS THREE EYES.

MEDORA, Ill., June 21.—George Blair, a farmer of Chalmers, has a duckling with one head, three bills, three eyes and four legs. In a batch of duck eggs all but one egg proved to be fertile. When the shell was broken Blair discovered the freakish-looking fowl, which he placed in a jar of alcohol for preservation.

"The Genius and The Model"

The genius of the brewer's art, slowly making itself felt throughout centuries of improvement, has at last found perfect expression in a new, light beer which is destined to become the model of all future attempts at beer betterment—the coveted goal of the brewer's ambition.

A new brand of beer is no uncommon thing; any brewer can put out a passable imitation of the old beers under a new name; but a beer which is new in kind as well as in name is a lasting and sensational triumph.

This new beer—new in quality and flavor—very appropriately and justly is named to suggest all the luxury of the pure, clear, sparkling, amber-hued beverage at its best; and the name on everybody's lips is

PAY FINE OF CARRIE NATION

Judge and "Smasher" Dispute Over Woman's Place of Future Abode.

WASHINGTON, June 21.—"I have been in jail twenty-nine times already and I may be in jail twenty-nine more times, but there is one jail I won't get into, and that is hell," Carrie Nation said.

"Don't be too sure of that," Police Judge Mulwony said.

This is a bit of the proceeding in the police court here in which Carrie Nation was arraigned, tried, convicted and sentenced to pay a fine of $25 or go to the workhouse for sixty days for disorderly conduct in breaking up a saloon.

Mrs. Nation had on deposit $20 collateral. When she announced she didn't have the balance friends chipped in and raised it and the fine was paid in full.

"When Theodore Roosevelt makes a speech he draws a large crowd; is Roosevelt disorderly?" Mrs. Nation asked the judge.

"We are not trying Roosevelt," remarked the judge.

Carrie Nation quoted the Bible. Before pronouncing the sentence Judge Mulwony said to the defendant:

"The Bible says the Lord preached in the synagogues. Did you ever hear of the Saviour or St. Paul going around as you are doing?"

"Oh, yes. They all preached on the streets," said Carrie, airily.

JUDGE COULD NOT BLAME HIM FOR STEALING KISS

GRANITE CITY, Ill., June 21.—Miss Stella McClain of Alton appeared in Justice Kinder's court in Granite City to prosecute E. A. Seck, an Alton druggist. She said he visited a physician's office in Alton, where she was employed, and stole three kisses. Seck denies the episode without qualification.

Miss McClain is so undeniably pretty that when Justice Kinder saw her he remarked:

"One can hardly blame a man for wanting to kiss a girl who looks like that."

CATCH OLD GUN IN NET.

PORT CLINTON, Ohio, June 21.—John Morgan and other fishermen were surprised on reaching shore to find in their net an old flintlock gun of English make, no doubt used in the Revolutionary War or some of the colonial wars. A silver plate on the gun is as bright, seemingly, as if it had been placed there but yesterday. The gun had been placed and MURDER DREAM.

PULASKI, Tenn., June 21.—Awed by a dream that he would be murdered for his money, Willis Smith, an aged resident of the French District, has flooded the country with coin which he has been hiding for many years. The money, amounting to $20,000, consists of half-dollars and quarters of the coinage of two generations ago, and does not give evidence of having been handled.

Smith, who is 84 years old, kept his money in fruit jars hidden about his home, on the prong of Shoal Creek until some one told him that he was running the risk of being murdered by keeping his money. He then hurried it to a local bank, and the flood of old coins followed.

Many years ago Smith put some money in a bank, but before he went out some customer handed the cashier a check which the latter paid from the pile of bills Smith had just deposited. Smith saw this, and withdrew his money, saying he would not do business with such a concern.

From that day he never patronized a bank, but kept his money at home.

"THAT'S THE MAN!" NET TIGHTENS ON HAYWOOD

RETAINMENT OF AOKI ESTABLISHES ATTITUDE

Present Japanese Ministry, Headed by the Marquis Saionji, Assures Itself of the Unionists and Conservative Parties.

NEW YORK, June 21.—Formal announcement by Viscount Hayashi, the Japanese minister for foreign affairs, in a Tokyo dispatch published today that Ambassador Aoki is to be retained at Washington is regarded here as clearly establishing the fact that the present Japanese ministry, headed by Marquis Saionji, has assured itself of the support of both the unionists and conservative parties in its present attitude toward America. For a time there was some doubt even in Washington and at the Japanese embassy, as to the power behind the demand of Count Okuma for the substitution for Aoki at Washington after a "strong man" by which term it was understood he meant a Japanese committed in advance to the policy of demanding from America full rights of citizenship, of residence and of immigration for Japanese.

Aoki had realized early the impossibility of securing all of these rights at this time because of the inability of the national government to dominate a State administration. His reports to his own government to that effect with the intimation that it was advisable to seek instead of unlimited rights, only those that might reasonably be expected to be considered at this time—an opportunist policy—at first caused a disagreeable impression in Japan. The successful outcome of the recent war, with the natural inflation of Japanese pride, tended to make the ambassador's policy of doubtful popularity.

FEARED UNFRIENDLINESS.

NEW YORK, June 21.—It is quite certain that the Salon Ministry was for a time somewhat taken aback at the abolition of popular indignation evidenced in the publications in the opposition newspapers in Japan and it is even surmised that there was a slight weakening and disposition to make some concessions. But soon after the agitation had reached its hearing the Japanese business interests began to feel a very strong pressure from abroad confining a clear meaning that a quarrel with America would leave Japan friendless and certainly would discourage the investment of foreign capital in Japanese enterprises.

With this favorable influence the Salon ministry found little difficulty in securing the adoption of the two great parties in Japan to its policy and the announcement made from Tokyo through the Associated Press relative to Ambassador Aoki's tenure is regarded as convincing evidence that Count Okuma's onslaught has failed and that the settled policy of Japanese will now discountenance "Jingo" agitation directed against America and endeavor to strengthen the friendly relations between the two countries.

Secretary Root left Washington this morning for his summer home, near Utica, N. Y., and Ambassador Aoki intends to remain at Buena Vista during the heated term so that it is not to be expected that there will be any important diplomatic exchange between the governments at Tokyo and Washington in the near future.

BELIEVE AOKI UNFITTED.

TOKIO, June 21.—While there is a unanimity of opinion here that Ambassador Aoki is unfitted for his present post at Washington and it is certain that attempts have been made to remove him, he has a very powerful political support, and moreover, being the senior of Viscount Hayashi, the foreign minister in the diplomatic service it would be a very delicate matter for the latter to recall him.

Unless strong proof can be furnished that Ambassador Aoki is persona non grata at Washington it is not likely that Viscount Hayashi will take the initiative in removing him from the position. The Japanese, however, to the effect that the Ambassador is very unpopular, not only with the Japanese, but among the American generals and officers, and prove true his removal might be demanded, in spite of the strong influences now supporting him here.

SAYS MILLIONAIRE WAS A VICTIM OF MEDIUMS

Los Angeles Woman's Deposition Reveals Details of Most Audacious Knavery Heretofore Known.

LOS ANGELES, June 21.—A woman's deposition has eliminated the spirit world from the trial of the suit brought by Frank Haddock and his sister, Mrs. Whitsett, to recover a portion of the estate of Charles G. Haddock, the deceased millionaire, which they claim was taken away from him by spiritualistic influence. The deposition reveals instead of ghastly messengers from the dead, the full details of the most audacious knavery that ever separated a gullible old gentleman from his fortune.

The deposition of Mrs. F. M. Donovan, wife of the "medium" who admitted to being the principal factor in the disbursement of the Haddock estate, gave the inside information on the "real influences" which controlled the last year of Charles G. Haddock, and was read in the Superior Court yesterday.

"Mr. Haddock wanted the messages and of course he got them," was the deposition expressed. It told of the three-cornered relationship existing between Mr. Haddock, Lee Nelson, the second wife, and Professor Donovan.

In reply to a question as to the part which Mr. Haddock played in this relationship the answer was, "he was the victim."

Haddock was constantly receiving messages through the mediumship of Professor Donovan and was a very willing dupe. The deposition went on to tell how the marriage between Lee Nelson and Haddock had been arranged by Professor Donovan, who fixed up a split message, advising Mr. Haddock to give Lee Nelson the sum of $50,000 as the ante-nuptial settlement. Strong proof of Mr. Haddock's faith in such "spiritual" communications is found in the fact that he once turned over to the woman a block of stock in the Chicago Trust Company which she afterward sold for $50,000.

It tells of the wedding tour of the aged capitalist under special escort of Professor Donovan and his wife. It was at Colorado Springs that the quartet became a quintet, and Lee Nelson Haddock, already anxious to be rid of the aged spouse, was comforted by the introduction of Cynthia Willett, never, already picked out as the third wife of the old man.

The spirits again got busy and arranged the details of a separation between Charles G. Haddock and Lee Nelson Haddock.

Not all of these messages came from Professor Donovan. Cynthia Willett was a slatewriter, but she went into trance and thus gave messages to Mr. Haddock.

Led to believe that Cynthia would continue to give him the messages he craved, Mr. Haddock carried out the program made the divorce possible and married Miss Willett as soon as the decree was granted.

The court adjourned with Mrs. Donovan's deposition half read.

Abu and Ben Shapiro, brothers and dealers in junk, with a storefront at Third and Brush streets, were taken into custody at 1 o'clock by Detectives Hodgkins and Green. The brothers are accused of receiving stolen property, of buying from minors under sixteen years of age, and of keeping no record of the purchases or sales of second-hand goods.

James Tierney, an employee of the Oakland Gas, Light and Heat Company, was arrested at 11:30 p.m. by Detective Smith and taken to the station. Tierney first invoked search warrant proceedings and recovered from the Shapiro's junk store fifty-two pounds of gas meter connections which had been stolen from the Gas Company.

The search revealed that the Shapiro store contains a vast quantity of articles of which the brothers have kept no record of purchase, so they assert. The police believe the place is and has been a "fence" for articles of stolen goods and articles of all kinds.

"YOSEMITE VALLEY NEEDS ANOTHER CAMP," SAYS REAL ESTATE DEALER

PUBLIC CRIES FOR QUARTERS

Many Tourists Sleep on the Dining-Room Floors.

"What the Yosemite Valley needs is at least another camp," said William H. Mackinnon, the real estate man, when seen at his residence, 1518 Brush street, last night after he and his wife had returned from a trip to the scenic spot of California. "The public is crying for more stopping accommodations and if these are not provided for, there will be a great many people who will not have the opportunity to visit the Yosemite as they would like to do. Since the railroad goes to the edge of the reserve hundreds of people take the trip every day. We had a very hard time in finding a good sleeping place. The camps could be again as large, but still there would be plenty of room for another."

Mr. and Mrs. Mackinnon returned Thursday with their party, consisting of themselves, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Bishop and Mrs. Clara Brown. The party was for twelve days in the Yosemite and during their stay visited all the principal places of interest, including Bridal Veil, Yosemite Falls, Lost Arrow trail, Military Camp, Camp Yosemite and Camp Curry. Hardly a point was overlooked by the mountain climbers who rode mules and horses over most every trail that was accessible to even the loftiest peaks. During their stay up there they saw all the varieties of weather from cold winter to the hot sunshine of summer. The thermometer registered from 20 degrees to 60. On the rainy day they left it was 55 degrees in the shade.

The route from Oakland goes over either the Santa Fe or the Southern Pacific railroads to Merced, where the Yosemite Valley road terminates. Buses and stages are at the train station to meet passengers and baggage to convey them to the trains for the edge of the valley at El Portal, where the party stayed over night, getting up at 6 o'clock the following morning for a trout breakfast before taking the stage route for a four mile drive into the valley. The stop at the Sentinel Hotel just before going into the big government park, terminated a beautiful ride along the Merced river, which in itself Mr. Mackinnon says is a magnificent trip.

Grading for a new hotel at this point is now in progress and before long much of the trade will be stopped here before going into the interior. Just outside of the valley one can see birds and small game without infringing on the preserves of Uncle Sam. Bear is also plentiful. On the way up from the Sentinel Hotel, the Mackinnon party saw a cub not more than 200 feet away from the road. One corner at El Portal says that he was awakened four times in one night by a bear prowling in his tent. Finally he arose and, taking his gun, he killed the disturber.

BEARS ROB CAMPERS. The party at the camp were robbed of a chicken roast one day by these animals. One of the large freight wagons was stuck in the mud caused by the sudden rains and the teamster had to leave it until additional teams could be secured from the camp. While he was away the bears attacked the provisions and breaking open a case of dressed chickens, stole the toothsome fowl.

"I am surprised at the government for the lack of accommodations they provide at the camps," continued Mr. Mackinnon. "If there had been a few more soldiers out there I think the public could make good use of their quarters. There are tents of every description. At Camp Curry many tourists had to sleep on the floor of the dining-room and some, I believe, slept on the same table they ate from."

John Maxwell tells a humorous story of Camp Curry. He says that one night when he was up there there was a sheet hung across the dining-room to separate the men sleepers from the women folk. There were three women on their side and all of a sudden they raised a storm about the unkindly number. One married woman said her husband had been sleeping on their side. He desired to please his wife, so slipped the lamp over to woman rushed up and blew out the light. This created laughter that nearly brought the tent down.

GLACIER POINT HARDEST.

"Probably the hardest trip was that of climbing Glacier Point. There is not near room enough for the people who are desirous of taking the trip. Now that the railroad goes to the edge of the reserve there are great many Oaklanders up there. Among those I met were Judge Garver and family, William Smith, John Havens of Berkeley, Dr. Morse and his wife, John Maxwell and wife, E. A. Heron, wife and son, James McElroy, Sam Brock and wife, Charles Armstrong and wife and a good many others.

"They are contemplating building a road into the redwoods from El Portal, and when this is done people can get in to see Old Grizzly, the big redwood tree, said to be over 7000 years old and which scientists declare to be the oldest thing on the earth. There are pretty water falls in this region just outside of Yosemite and here one can shoot birds and squirrels. When the new hotel is completed many tourists will end their trip here if the quarters in the valley have not been enlarged. Everybody at all interested in the Yosemite Valley and California in general should make it their point to use what bearing they can on the government, or who ever has the authority to go ahead with the work, and immediately establish one or more camps."

BOY MILLIONAIRE HAPPY WITH 5 CENTS

"I don't know that being a millionaire makes much difference to me," said Albert Keep Isham, 11 Ritchie Place, the 13-year-old son of Ralph Isham, who will inherit $2,000,000 of the estate of the late Albert Keep. "I've only got five cents in my pocket. Right now, and the day before, I knew I was so wealthy I had fifteen cents in silver and two pennies."

The new millionaire is the grandson of the late Albert Keep, former president of the Chicago & North-western Railroad. The will of the wealthy railroad man recently admitted to probate gives the boy one million dollars when he passes his thirty-second birthday. From now until he is 16 years old he is to receive $1,600 a year for his education and living expenses. Between 16 and 18 he is to get $1,300 a year, and when 19 he will receive $2,200. At the age of 22 years young Isham will receive half the income from his personal property.

them in Lake county, where thousands of people are flocking to the point.

With visions in mind of the attempt made about three months ago by an unknown miscreant or insane person to dynamite the home of Superior Judge H. A. Melvin's residence at 1363 Sixth avenue were alarmed about 9:30 o'clock last night by a terrific explosion. The sound indicated that an explosive had been set off near the house, which is half a block from the corner of East Eighteenth street.

Mrs. Melvin felt the house shaken by the force of the explosion, and the judge notified the police. Captain Lynch caused an investigation to be made. No evidence of an explosion could be found. It was decided by the police that boys had set off a big bomb or placed a dynamite torpedo on the Eighteenth street car track.

JUDGE MELVIN GETS BIG MENTAL SHOCK

Among its other strange and extraordinary features the present session of the general assembly of the State of Arkansas has the unique distinction of having among its members the tallest hawker in the United States, and probably in all the world. The all-time record in question is J. MINER POINTED TO AS PARTNER OF MURDER

People Closes Case After Implicating Pettibone in Orchard Crime.

(By Associated Press.)

BOISE, June 21.—The State this morning made its last tender of evidence against William D. Haywood, on trial for the alleged murder of Frank Stoenberg, and the lead is now with the defense, which will this afternoon ask for an instructed verdict for the prisoner.

Two important pieces of testimony were offered this morning. Charles S. Kingsley, a handwriting expert, testified that the writing of the waivers on the money telegrams sent from Pettibone's store in Denver in the names of J. Wolf and "P. Bone" to "H. Green" in San Francisco was done by the same hand that penned Pettibone's letter to John Stearns.

A stipulation by the defense admitting the fact that Haywood telegraphed money to Steve Adams at Ogden in 1903, and a ruling by the court denying admission to the discrediting opinion in the Meyer case corpus case in Colorado, cleared the direct work of the prosecution, and opened the way to the plea and case of the defense.

BOISE, Idaho, June 21.—When the Haywood trial was resumed at 9:30 this morning not more than 100 people occupied seats outside the bar, of these at least forty being witnesses. Haywood's mother sat on his immediate right and she, with the prisoner's sister, were the only members of his family present.

On being directed to proceed, Senator Borah announced that the State had received telegraphic information from the First National Bank in Denver, filling in the date on one of the drafts which have been introduced as evidence and on which the date had been punched out by the State. The bank in this case was for $100 and the bank wired that it bears the date of December 21, 1905. It was drawn in favor of J. L. Simpkins by Haywood.

ASKED FOR $100.

The letter produced in court from Pettibone to Hogan, or Orchard, received by Orchard while in jail at Caldwell, Idaho, that it had been sent to Jack Orchard and it said that he had asked for $100. The defense admitted prima facie that the date was December 21 and the date was recorded as evidence.

W. A. McCarty, the former clerk in the telegraph office at Denver, testified that he did not write the waiver of identity on the back of the telegraphic money orders sent from Denver to Orchard when on the Bradley mission in San Francisco.

IMPLICATES PETTIBONE.

C. S. Kingsley, an attorney of Boise, was called. He qualified as an expert in handwriting. He was asked to compare Pettibone's signature on the letter replying to the insurance agent in Denver, who asked as to the character of Orchard, with the signature of Wolf and "P. Bone" on the back of the telegraphic money orders. Kingsley said that in his opinion the signatures were written by one and the same person. He was not cross-examined.

Jim Seaborn, a negro horse-dealer of Denver, the next witness, testified to the sale of a horse and buggy to Haywood in Denver.

Orchard had testified as to the sale of the team to Haywood. He said that the outfit was needed to get about while in their work in connection with their various undertakings.

Seaborn said that Orchard came to him and with him he drove to Pettibone's place of business. Pettibone came out and together they drove to the place he described as the location of the headquarters of the Western Federation of Miners.

"What happened then?" asked Haywood.

"Orchard went upstairs and came down with another man," "Yes, what next?" "The other man got in the buggy and they said they would be back soon and drove off together."

"Do you know this other man?" "Yes, I have seen him."

"Would you know him now?" "Yes, sir."

"Look around an see if you can see him here?"

IDENTIFIES HAYWOOD. The negro looked over to the defense side and pointed a finger at Haywood.

"Yes, sir, that's the man," he said. There was a pause and a silence broken only by a stir among the spectators.

It was the first direct connection of Haywood with Orchard, and a strong corroboration of Orchard's story. "How much did you get for the outfit?"

"$110."

"Who paid you?" "Mr. Orchard."

"You paid for the money and gave Orchard a bill of sale?"

"No, sir, the bill of sale was made to Mr. Pettibone."

He described the horse as a little black mare and the vehicle as a top buggy.

Seaborn was only briefly cross-examined by the State, and then was dismissed by Pinkerton detectives and received his fare and expenses from them in advance.

STATE CLOSES CASE. Seaborn moved to the witness stand of the State. Senator Borah stated that with the exception of proving the sending of a money order for $5 by the Western Federation of Miners to Denver to Steve Adams in Ogden, Utah, in 1905 the State's case was closed.

Richardson, the State's witness, said that they would agree that the State could file the telegrams as soon as they were received in San Francisco and that the telegrams would be in Boise by this evening.

"With this exception then, your honor," said Senator Borah, "the State is ready to close its case."

WOMAN'S DEATH WAS SUICIDAL

Discovery Surprises Friends of Mrs. Edith Porter, Commercial Stenographer.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 21.—It developed this afternoon that a case of death which is supposed to have been caused by natural causes was in reality a case of suicide from carbolic acid poisoning. The victim was Mrs. Edith Porter of 382 San Jose avenue.

She was a woman very attractive of appearance, with a son and daughter, and had been divorced from her husband, who is now a resident of the East, some years ago.

She has been living with her uncle and made a living as a stenographer in the employ of the American Steel Wire Company. She was highly esteemed by the people for whom she worked, and they were greatly surprised when they learned of her death, and much more so when they found that it had been of a violent character.

When the coroner's representative called for the remains the night before last there was nothing to indicate that death had not resulted naturally. An autopsy was performed, however, by Dr. Kusich and a chemical analysis of the contents of her stomach, which was made by the city chemist, Dr. Bothy, showed that the woman had taken a large dose of carbolic acid. The brother and sister of Mrs. Porter, who are here temporarily on a visit from the east will arrive tomorrow.

SPEECH WINS FAVOR.

Judge U. M. Rose, of Little Rock, Ark., owes the honor of being selected as one of the United States delegates to the world's peace congress to a speech he made in Little Rock when the President was a guest. The Judge never had met the President until that day. Judge Rose is nearly 80 years old and never has been an office-seeker. Though he was for many years on the highest bench of his State, he frequently had declined political office.

ROLLS OUT OF BED AND DISLOCATES SHOULDER

Joseph Corbett, a peddler living at 473 Seventh street, was so deeply asleep in slumber last night that he rolled out of bed and dislocated his right shoulder. Corbett has been a steady patient at the Receiving Hospital because of the laxity of his shoulder chords. Every time he falls or sits down hard his shoulder springs out of the socket. It was after 11 o'clock last night when he woke up and found that he was again a painful invalid, so hurriedly dressed and ran to the Receiving Hospital. Dr. Evans examined and placed the ligaments back in place.

WOOL POWDER PUFF.

The woolen powder puff, which has been in vogue a long time for the bath and traveling, at last has been superseded by one far more soft, durable and fluffy. This new puff is made of two circular pieces of wonderfully fine, white lamb's wool, the skins being sewed together. It is easily washed, drying out sweet, soft and pure, and is perfectly sanitary. Little rough paws for applying dry rouge also are made of this wool and have slender white handles.

FALLS OFF ROOF.

While running a wheelbarrow load of gravel along the roof of the new building in the Taylor Lumber Company's yard at Alameda yesterday afternoon, H. Petersen, a roofer living at 1227 Parait street, lost his footing and fell to the ground, gravel and all. The fall cost him many internal injuries.

66 DAYS FOR BUDDING STAR

"You Can Rehearse in the City Prison, Annie," Remarks Court.

Notwithstanding the fact that she on June 10 signed an affidavit stating that she would not for one year taste a drop of intoxicating liquor, Annie King was this morning in the dock of Police Court 1. Policeman Thomas Wood arrested Annie last night and booked her on charges of drunk, vulgar language and vagrancy. Annie was neatly arrayed when she appeared before Judge Smith this morning. "Why did you break your pledge, Annie?" the judge asked. "I intended to keep my pledge and did so, Your Honor, but when I drank a ginger ale somebody unbeknown to me must have put a 'stick' in it. It is my misfortune, not my fault that I am here. I have been engaged by the Empire Theater to take a part in a play at that house, Your Honor, and the expected them this afternoon to rehearse my part."

GUILTY, SAYS JUDGE.

"Guilty, as charged," said Judge Smith at the conclusion of the budding star's talk. "Six dollars fine for three days, for drunkenness, six dollars for using vulgar language, and sixty days for vagrancy. You will have to rehearse in the city prison, Annie," added the court.

JUNKSHOP SAID TO BE FENCE

Abu and Ben Shapiro, brothers and dealers in junk, with a storefront at Third and Brush streets, were taken into custody at 1 o'clock by Detectives Hodgkins and Green. The brothers are accused of receiving stolen property, of buying from minors under sixteen years of age, and of keeping no record of the purchases or sales of second-hand goods.

James Tierney, an employee of the Oakland Gas, Light and Heat Company, was arrested at 11:30 p.m. by Detective Smith and taken to the station. Tierney first invoked search warrant proceedings and recovered from the Shapiro's junk store fifty-two pounds of gas meter connections which had been stolen from the Gas Company.

The search revealed that the Shapiro store contains a vast quantity of articles of which the brothers have kept no record of purchase, so they assert. The police believe the place is and has been a "fence" for articles of stolen goods and articles of all kinds.

MAUD ADAMS PLAYS HERE

Actress is Signed for Five Performances in This City.

There is no necessity for the theatergoers of Alameda County to go to San Francisco to see Maud Adams in her various plays. She is coming to Oakland and will be seen at the Macdonough theater in her two best plays.

The same performance will be given here that is being given in San Francisco. Everything will be arranged to please the Oakland public. It is the proper thing to patronize the home theaters and then the people here can get the best that is going. Oakland is one of the best theatrical cities in the country.

Maud Adams will play an engagement at the Macdonough theater Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday nights, July 22d, 23d, 24th and 25th, with special matinee Tuesday and Thursday. She will be seen as "Peter Pan" in the play "Peter Pan," and "Phoebe Trussell" in "Quality Street." This is a repertoire of the two greatest successes of her stage career. Mail orders for seats will be accepted next week.

DRAMA AT MACDONOUGH.

Walter Sanford's company of players are forging ahead into public favor at the Macdonough Theater, where they are presenting the successful London Adelphi Theater drama, "My Jack." This play is distinctly a sterling drama that interests all classes. The plot gives scope to many varied incidents and scenes. There are pathetic touches that cause the eye to fill, only to be followed the next moment by hilarious comedy that quickly causes the tears to be brushed away, while the stirring dramatic situations are received with enthusiastic applause. The scene between "Jack" and "Circ" on the African desert is particularly effective, and the tenacious of the scene is admirably upheld by Mr. Sanford and Mr. Wray. "Pat" and "Maud" furnish the comedy, and the laughter is constant while they are on the stage. Miss Laura Hudson is establishing herself as a great favorite. In the role of "Dorothy," "Jack's" sweetheart, she is sympathetic and winning. Miss Hudson possesses good looks and an attractive personality. Miss Maud Lita gives an impressive performance of the blind mother. There are nine scenes shown, among them the old ruined mill house, the deck of the English ironclad sea gull, the British encampment in the Sudan, and the sun-scorched African desert. The claim made by this company that it carries more elaborate and costly scenery than any other stock organization that has ever visited us has been amply justified so far. The great Drury Lane Theater success, "Spartan Life," will follow "My Jack," and Mr. Sanford announces that he has secured the rights to the municipal graft play, "The Undertow." This is the drama that has caused a sensation at the Adelphi Theater, San Francisco, during the past three weeks. Special preparations are being made to give this play a perfect presentation. It will be presented by this company in the near future.

EIGHTH STREET THEATER.

Manager Hadji announces that his popular place of amusement, the Eighth Street Theater, will re-open its doors to the public tomorrow night. The house has been thoroughly renovated and enlarged, the seating capacity being doubled. This theater in appointment can now compare favorably to the finest continuous show houses on the coast. The opening bill will be a combination of the best known vaudeville artists in the business, and the Hadji Comedy Company will be seen in the laughable two-act comedy entitled "Married by Mistake," which is said to be a very funny skit. Altogether the opening bill will be a splendid one, and the reopening will be a brilliant one. It is the intention of the management to give at all times high grade vaudeville and comedy.

DEER COMES TO TOWN.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., June 21.—Strong wooden posts were snapped off like pipe-stems and the rest of a fence was completely demolished by a buck deer today, becoming imprisoned yesterday morning in a henyard belonging to A. H. Weaver. The fence is eight feet high and the supporting posts were seen about four feet apart, but it presented a very thin obstacle to the wild deer that was on the wrong side of it. With successive leaps of its body against the posts and boards it managed to break through and the immense "cape" it took making for the tall timber are shown by the distance between the hoofprints. After breaking through the fence the deer ploughed through Mr. Weaver's garden, tearing up the vegetation and making the place in general look as if a Kansas cyclone had passed over it. Where the deer went or from whence it came nobody knows, but that it was around Mr. Weaver is ready to take oath.

PAYS RENT WITH ROSE.

LANCASTER, Pa., June 21.—The annual ceremony famous in Pennsylvania as the "Feast of Roses" was celebrated recently at Manheim in memory of the town's founder, Baron Henry William Stiegel, a German immigrant. It was held in Zion's Lutheran Church, the site of which he donated on condition that annually in June on dew and one red rose should be paid as rental. Twelve he demanded payment, then the custom lapsed until 1891, when it was revived as an annual ceremony. Since then an heir of Baron Stiegel has appeared to receive payment. It was tendered a few days ago by Sumner V. Hosterman of the Lancaster bar and received by Professor A. E. Ego of Mechanicsburg, Pa. The town was thronged with people from all parts of Pennsylvania and 700 towns from over Lancaster county were asked about the church.

HAZEL GRAHAM, CHORUS GIRL AND PRIDE OF JOHNNIES, LEAVES TOWN

HAZEL GRAHAM, WHO HAS JOINED THE DALEY COMPANY.

Resigns at Idora Park; Joins Daley Musical Company and Hopes to Land on Broadway, N. Y.

Hazel Graham, the beautiful chorus girl at Idora Park, has resigned, and has gone in search of fame. She was shapely in form and pretty of face, and possessed a light voice; these are the things with which she hopes to break into Broadway, New York.

The young lady left for Denver yesterday, whither she goes to join the Daley Musical Company, which is now on the road. As a chorus girl at Idora Park she collected about $12 a week. Now she gets $20 a week and is given a speaking part.

Miss Graham hopes to use the Daley Company as a stepping stone to Broadway. The young lady was popular because of her beauty and grace and she was always daintily entertained by the local Johnnies.

OPEN EXHIBIT IN THE SOUTH

Chamber of Commerce Will Probably Go After the Southern Tourists.

The Chamber of Commerce of this city has done a great deal in the past year in the way of advertising Oakland. A great deal of good has been accomplished and new people are coming here all the time. A suggestion has been made that the Chamber of Commerce open an exhibit at Los Angeles and have an agent in charge to greet tourists and show them the way to get to the greatest county in the west. The plan has been looked upon in a favorable light and it is proposed that the Chamber of Commerce will take the issue and establish an exhibit in Los Angeles. Such a move would undoubtedly result in much good to Oakland county.

CONDEMN ASSASSIN OF RUSSIAN COMMANDANT

SEBASTOPOL, June 21.—The assassin of Colonel Guessekofsky, the assistant harbor commandant, who was murdered here June 16, has been condemned to death. He was tried by a regular court martial, but procedure was as expeditious as that of the abolished drum-head court martial. The mutineers of the battleships Sinope and Tria Sviatitsa will be tried early in July.

Black lisle thread stockings of unusual quality and double heel and toes are 50 cents each.

Dandelion

a safe and sure specific for rheumatism

Guaranteed under the Pure Food and Drugs Act, June 30, 1906. Serial number 5307. Rheumatism is the most part attacks the sinews and muscles of the body. Therefore the joints, the muscle casings and heart valves suffer most. Like gout, this disease is caused by an excess of uric acid or blood poison in the system. Rheumatic pains sometimes change their location; wander from one part of the body to another, and visit various joints in succession. The nature of this painful disease is still a matter of opinion, but certain remedies have been discovered that produce immediate relief and lasting relief, and many times a permanent cure. Probably the most important discovery made in this connection is the famous prescription from which Dr. Edwards' Compound Dandelion Tablets are prepared. Thousands of people have used this wonderful remedy for rheumatism and are now well and happy. It will pay you to get a box today.

SUCCESSORS TO HIS INJURIES

Grand Juror C. B. Rode Dies as Result of Being Run Over Monday.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 21.—As a result of injuries received last Monday by being run over at Fifth and Market streets by a team, Grand Juror C. B. Rode died yesterday at his home at 2723 Howard street.

Mr. Rode was run over at Fifth and Market streets by a team belonging to Farnsworth & Russell, driven by T. Rode. The man was taken to the Central Emergency Hospital, where it was found that his left shoulder blade and two ribs were broken. He was later removed to his home where it was at first thought that his injuries were not serious.

Mr. Rode was a native of Germany, a pioneer of his state, and for years of age owned the drafting company of Rode & Co. He leaves a widow, Mary Rode, and two children, Alice Rode and Mrs. C. C. Montague.

BRADLEY GIVES LIE TO ORCHARD'S TALE

SAN FRANCISCO, June 21.—Attorney Samuel M. Shortridge of this city is engaged today in taking the deposition of F. W. Bradley, the former superintendent of the Bunker Hill and Sullivan mine, who it is alleged was run out of the Couer D'Alenes by members of the Western Federation of Miners during the labor troubles of several years ago. Bradley was an occupant of the flat, 1404 Washington street, in this city, when Harry Orchard made the alleged attempt to blow him up with a bomb. Bradley's deposition will be used by the defense in the Haywood trial at Boise. Bradley's version of the explosion is that it was caused by gas. Under direct examination by Mr. Shortridge he testified today that his cigar apparently ignited a quantity of escaped illuminating gas as he descended to the front hall from his apartment on the third floor. The explosion was of such force that it wrecked the front part of the house. Bradley was hurled into the street and badly injured.

In his testimony at Boise, Harry Orchard has declared the explosion was the result of the setting off of a bomb placed by him under the front porch, with the object of killing Bradley.

The cross-examination of Bradley was conducted by Attorney Van Dym of the State of Idaho.

WILL CHARGE EXPRESS TO RETURN "EMPTIES"

Commencing today, the Wells, Fargo Company is charging expressage on all empty boxes and other freight receptacles which country merchants desire returned to them from Oakland and other points. The company will also discontinue the method of calling at the various stores for "empties," leaving the consignee to attend to that in the future at his own expense. Oakland merchants say that the cost of the freight and drayage on "empties" will have to be borne by the country shippers. The idea is new to California, but it is in operation in the East. One result of the new order will be that in the future perishable goods will be sent in cleaner boxes, as few empties will be returned.

CARMEN REPORT ON THE STRIKE

Campaign Committee Declares That Travel on Street Cars Is Declining.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 21.—A meeting of the general campaign committee in charge of the Carmen's strike was held last night. Reports were received from sub-committees and captains of the pickets. The Chicago Carmen's Union were reported to have donated $1500 to the strike fund. Liberal donations and assessments were also received from local unions affiliated with the Labor Council and the Building Trades Council.

Progress was reported by the transportation committee. The bus system is becoming so perfectly organized that it is expected in a few days it will cover all parts of the city.

Secretary Twelvetime said: "From the reports of our pickets, we learn that the travel on the street cars of the United Railroads is declining, while the bus traffic is increasing correspondingly. Our pickets report that there are 175 cars operated now by the United Railroads, as against 450 previous to the strike. We are getting more buses into service each day. The prospects are pleasing."

J. J. BLANKS WINS GREAT AMERICAN HANDICAP

CHICAGO, June 21.—The great American handicap in the shooting tournament was won today by J. J. Blanks of Trezevant, Tenn., with a score of 17 out of a possible 20. M. J. Maryatt of Fort Collins, Colo., was second with 15, and C. M. Powers of Decatur, Ill., third, with 14.

These three were tied yesterday for first place, each scoring 96. The shoot off today was at 200 targets.

FEMALE SLEUTHS DEMAND PAY OF THEIR EMPLOYER

After Sensational Trial Women Surround Man in Court Room Corridors and Block Way—Police to Rescue.

(TRIBUNE CORRESPONDENCE.)
SAN FRANCISCO, June 21.—"Produce the letters," said Judge Cabaniss in the police court this morning, and the clerk handed up several typewritten missives.

"They are written in black, too," said his Honor, "or," correcting himself, "perhaps in red ink, which is probably intended as a substitute for black."

The letters in question bore the signature of Mrs. M. E. Morey of 362 Perry street, Oakland, and were addressed to W. H. Foulkes, an insurance agent at 136 Leidesdorff street in this city, and were supposed to be the basis of an action in the court in question against Dr. Carl W. Von Pledermann, who, it is alleged, is sometimes known as Captain Morey, and who, it is alleged also, appears as the husband of the woman whose name was signed to the letters.

Foulkes claimed the letters had been written by Pledermann himself and that they showed that Pledermann intended to do the plaintiff bodily injury. On the alleged ground that Foulkes had run away with, and was concealing a young daughter of Mrs. Morey, whose name is Constance Bowen.

DENIES ALL KNOWLEDGE.

Foulkes took the stand today and declared that he had no knowledge of the present or past whereabouts of the Bowen girl, and also that he has never had any dealings with her, except those of a personal friend.

There were also placed on the stand three young women, Miss Blanche Gliman of 520 Hayes street, Mrs. H. E. Shide of 240 Twentieth avenue and Miss L. Reasons, all of whom claimed that Pledermann had employed them at the rate of $5 a day for the purpose of shadowing Foulkes, who, Pledermann claimed, knew the whereabouts of and was keeping in hiding young Constance Bowen, the daughter of Mrs. Morey.

Each of these young women claimed that their services had been secured by Pledermann by answering an advertisement for a female detective, and that they had diligently "shadowed" Foulkes from 5 o'clock in the morning until late at night, and that they had not been able to locate him with the missing girl, nor had they been able to trace him to any place of questionable repute.

What annoyed them most was the fact that after having worked a number of days and nights they had been finally discharged by Pledermann on the ground that their work had not been satisfactory and then they discovered that there was to be no remuneration for their services. They then called upon P. C. Gray, the manager of the West Coast detective agency, and secured his advice in the premises, that is, they sought from him the best means of trying to secure from Pledermann the money which they claimed was due them.

EVIDENCE INSUFFICIENT.

Judge Cabaniss declared the evidence did not warrant the charge of an attempt to kill Foulkes, and also stated that the women might have been in better business than that of shadowing men, specially as one of them had testified that she had never been able to trap Foulkes going into a place of ill repute.

The court further declared, however, that he believed Pledermann had written the letters in question because of missives of a similar character which Pledermann had years ago written when the court was acting in the capacity of prosecuting attorney.

Pledermann took the stand and swore that he had seen Foulkes and Constance Bowen together in Oakland and that both of them had boarded a car at the corner of Eighth street and Broadway in that city, and that each seemed to be in the enjoyment of the other's company. Foulkes was afterwards placed on the stand and swore with equal positiveness that he had never boarded a car with the young woman, and that he did not know anything about her, and that he had never had any relations with her except those of a personal friend.

CALLS MAN CRAZY.

Miss Bowen's whereabouts at the present time is unknown. Foulkes declares that there is no question in his mind, and so informed the court that Pledermann is crazy, and dangerously so.

After the proceedings in court there was a scene in the halls of the building, which at one time indicated that Pledermann would be assaulted by the three women who had testified on the stand that he is indebted to them. They surrounded him and demanded the wages which they claimed were due them—in one instance the amount being $45, and for a time successfully blocked his attempt to get out of their reach.

The sympathy of the bystanders were with the young woman, but as the scene unfolded upon the scene and enabled Pledermann to make his escape from the structure. The young women followed him, however, to the corner of Powell and Eddy streets, and there Pledermann made his escape on a convenient car.

INTRODUCES LETTER.

The following letter was introduced as evidence:

"362 Perry St., Oakland, Cal.
April 24, 1907.

"W. H. Foulkes, San Francisco, Cal.—Sir: I called on Dr. Pledermann yesterday evening relative to what you told me and the dire threats you made against him and others, which you requested I should communicate to him immediately.

"I hold in my hands the report of the men employed to look you up, and find many interesting matters.

"I also reported what you said to the chief of police. The doctor will certainly know how to take care of himself. I now repeat to you that my daughter, Constance, will not be eighteen years old for several months to come, and I shall swear to this when the time arrives to do so. I know that my daughter is in San Francisco and am reliably informed that you see her often.

"The doctor offers to spend $2500 to convict the man responsible for her predicament, and again I say, though this matter has been deferred one day, unless Constance is in my home by tomorrow evening before 6 o'clock I shall swear to a complaint.

CHARGED LIBEL.

"The doctor has never been convicted of forgery or any other offense, either a misdemeanor or felony, and for making such statements Dr. Dudley Tait and W. S. Thorne were arrested few years ago. Your statements were as false as the other statements uttered by you relative to the poor girl, the poor, misguided and now in the hands of the most debased, reeking, slimy thing, whose morality has sunk into the abysmal depths of putridity, and for whom hanging would be too easy.

"But all such scoundrels finally get their deserts, and this fellow will be no exception to the rule.

"Once more I beseech you help me to get my baby home to her mamma, to one who loves her for her sake, and for the money she can bring, but for her own dear child's sake.

"I believe every word uttered by Dr. Von Pledermann. He has always been truthful to us, and now shows that he is a real friend. Constance was seen in San Francisco day before yesterday, and you not far away, either.

"Never enter my house again. No, the doctor never not anywhere. He has retired, but if you wish to see him he said to ring him up. You have his phone number. He will communicate you to anything you are looking for. He told your wife nothing, he said, but will see that she has the fullest proof of yourself very soon.

Do it Now! Don't Wait Until It's Too Late!

KEEP your body clean! Most people are very neat and clean in their outward appearance, but how about the inside? Are you clean inside? And if not, how can you face the world with clean thoughts, clear intelligence, a fair, just, bright mind and get your full share of capacity for work and enjoyment?

Neglect of exercise, rich over-feeding and carelessness about stools, often leave the delicate internal mechanism in a messy mess.

The small intestine is compelled to absorb the poison of decaying matter instead of wholesome nourishment.

The liver gets inactive; the bile doesn't "work off"; the eyes get yellow; the skin gets dead like putty and pale like dough, disfigured with boils, pimples, blackheads and liver-spots.

There's only one solution to the problem: Keep clean inside all the time. That's the answer.

If you can not diet, or keep your mechanism going by proper exercise, take Cascarets, the sweet, fragrant, harmless little vegetable tablets, that "act like exercise" on your bowels, and gently but powerfully clean out and disinfect the whole digestive canal.

A Cascaret every night before going to bed will "work while you sleep" and make you "feel fine in the morning."

If you have been neglecting yourself for some time, take a Cascaret night and morning and break up the "constipated habit" without acquiring a "cathartic habit."

Cascarets are sold by all druggists, 10c, 25c and 50c. The 10c size trial box is a great fit for the vest pocket or lady's purse.

Be sure to get the genuine with the "Long-tailed C" on the box and the letters "CCC" on each tablet. They are never sold in bulk.

QUARTER

The Tone of a Chickering Quarter Grand

Is far richer in quality than a concert grand of any other make. Yet the Chickering Quarter Grand occupies but little more room than an upright. Consider what a triumph this is for the House of Chickering.

In many homes the only barrier to a grand piano has been lack of room. In the Chickering Quarter Grand that obstacle is removed. Prices range from $700 up.

ANTI-SALOON SENTIMENTS WANTED IN PLATFORMS

At Meeting of Wholesale Liquor Dealers' Association Call Is Made for Federation of Interests.

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., June 21.—Injection of anti-saloon sentiments into the platforms of both great political parties in the next national campaign was predicted at last night's session of the National Wholesale Liquor Dealers Association convention.

Call was made for the federation of liquor interests in the United States, not only to meet the sweep of prohibition agitation, but to prepare to check the movement in the presidential conventions of 1908, speakers declaring that the growth of the crusade against liquor will force the party leaders to recognize the necessity of placing some "platform doctrine" dealing with the subject before the people at the coming election.

Organization of a great campaign fund to meet the new conditions was advocated by the protective bureau of the association and big contributions for this fund from every liquor interest were urged.

Geo. F. Dietrich, Cincinnati, was elected president and other officers were named.

ASSESSOR IS REFUNDED SUM

Assessor Dalton Collects $5612.40 From Alameda County as His Commissions.

In following the recent decisions of the State Supreme Court, Superior Judge F. B. Ogden yesterday made an order by which County Assessor Henry P. Dalton was refunded the sum of $5,612.40, commissions on poll taxes which he turned over to the County Treasurer under protest. The money was withheld, but had to be turned over to the county. The assessor made a strong protest and took the matter to the Superior Court. The five judges sitting on the bench decided against Dalton, but when the matter was appealed to the higher court it was ordered that the official be refunded his 30 per cent. commission on the collections.

He Fired the Stick. "I have fired the walking-stick I've carried over 40 years, on account of a sore that resisted every kind of treatment, until I tried Chickering's. It has healed the sore and made me a happy man," writes John Garrett, of North Mills, N. C. Guarantees for Piles, Burns, etc. by Osgood Bros. druggists Seventh and Broadway and Twelfth and Washington. 25c.

BEGINS BIG DAMAGE SUIT

Plaintiff Was Arrested on Misdemeanor Charge and Now Wants $20,000.

For the alleged injury his name received by being prosecuted for a misdemeanor charge, which later was dismissed and ignored, George Manitaras asks the sum of $20,000 damages of George Edwards. In the complaint that was filed yesterday afternoon, Manitaras says he was arrested last November on complaint of the defendant, who charged him with removing his property out of the State in order to defraud his creditors. Manitaras was placed in the County Jail for several days and was released on $500 bail. He obtained the services of an attorney, which cost him another $100. When the case for which he was arrested came up before Justice of the Peace Quinn it was dismissed. The plaintiff claims the charge was unfounded and says he was materially damaged to the extent of the amount prayed for.

Pain from indigestion, dyspepsia, and too hearty eating, is relieved at once by taking one of Carter's Little Liver Pills immediately after dinner. Don't forget this.

WOMAN FAILS TO KISS AND MAKE UP

From the legal steps taken by Mary Flynn, she did not kiss and make up with her husband James early in the week when her first divorce complaint was dismissed, for yesterday afternoon there was filed by Attorneys Aldrich & Gentry another divorce complaint in which a separation is sought on the grounds of extreme cruelty. Flynn is a housewife and was in the employ of the fire department as an extra fireman. His wife charged him with coming home drunk when they lived at 815 Franklin street and severely beating her. Sometimes, she says, he got her up against the wall and attempted to strangle her.

SUES TRACTION CO. FOR $7725 DAMAGES

Catherine Carroll brought suit in the Superior Court yesterday afternoon for $7725 damages against the Oakland Traction Company for the injuries she is said to have sustained on February 25th last while a passenger on a San Pablo avenue car. She claims that when she attempted to alight from the car at San Pablo and Yerba Buena avenues it was started suddenly, throwing her to the ground. From the fall she says she sustained painful bodily injuries. Her attorneys are Stanley Moore and J. F. Street.

COURT AWARDS WOMAN INTERLOCTORY DECREE

Catherine Russell was awarded an interlocutory decree of divorce yesterday afternoon by Judge Waste against George H. Russell. The custody of the two minor children was given to the plaintiff, as was the sum of $40 a month alimony for their support. Mrs. Russell said her husband drank to excess and made married life so unpleasant that she could not live with him any longer. The couple were married in Lake Forest, Ill., in 1895.

FRYING OUR OWN HERRINGS

A Correspondent Who is Interested in British Politics.

San Francisco, June 18. Editor TRIBUNE: Transcending in virility any political campaign waged in Great Britain since Gladstone's two great efforts—universal franchise and home rule for Ireland—is the campaign for the taxation of land values now being waged in the bright little "Tiger Little Island." All the strong Liberals are out, led by Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman; the premier, Lord Winston Churchill; Alex. Ure, K. C. M. P., Secretary-General for Scotland, and are stamping the country to prepare and educate the people so that public opinion may be ripe for action when the House of Lords vetoes the bill, almost certain to be put through the House of Commons, for the separate rating of land values and improvements, with a view to the ultimate adoption of a single tax on land values.

This question has aroused the British people as Chamberlain's protective proposition failed to do and the politicians are splitting to a new alignment, such as ours did over the silver question. All the old arguments of the single tax, familiar in our country, are being reshaped over there by the Tories and liberal lords as might have been expected. Lord Roseberry, not long since a Liberal premier, deprecates the effort to tax land values as "an attack on property." On the other hand our own Andrew Carnegie, in an article in the Review of Reviews (British edition), on the "Problem of Wealth," shows his understanding of the land question very clearly and puts to shame the Duke of Argyll's denials on the same question. It is rather interesting to find Mr. Carnegie, now he has made his pile, showing how it was done and how it will go on being done at the producer's expense, until the land question is settled.

ROYAL COURT HOLD REGULAR MEETING

Oakland Assembly No. 25, of the Royal Court, held its regular fortnightly social at Reed Hall last week. A large number were present and the usual splendid music furnished by Heinemann's Orchestra made it most enjoyable for the many dancers on the floor. At a short business meeting such important matters as were necessary were attended to and three candidates initiated.

Tonight at the regular business meeting it is expected to have a large number of candidates and an election of officers for the ensuing term. The expected visit of Mrs. Beale Whitehead, of Butte, Montana, royal warden, will be discussed and arrangements made for a fitting reception in her honor.

Elmhurst Assembly No. 20 at its meeting last week elected officers for the fall term, and it is planned to have an elaborate reception tendered to Mrs. Whitehead on the occasion of her visit next month. The following were the officers elected: Dr. R. H. Eveleth, worthy chancellor; Mr. Effie Finley, vice chancellor; J. Goffee, past worthy chancellor; Otto Hauser, bishop; Carl Jacobson, counselor; Margaret Deavers, mistress of exchange; Mrs. Genereaux, scrivener; Laura Finley, lady of honor; G. W. Stewart, herald; M. Wren, warden; N. Humphreys, sentinel; finance committee: K. Moyer, P. Humphreys, R. H. Eveleth.

Watch this Store at 5 P.M.

On Saturday afternoon at 5:00 p. m., we will liberate two hundred balloons from the roof of our store on the corner of 13th and Franklin streets. To each balloon will be attached an order for a prize, which will be given to the finder on presentation at the store. The prizes range in value from half a dollar to forty dollars, consisting of tableware and furniture.

We do this with the object of familiarizing you with the location. We want everyone in Oakland, Alameda and Berkeley and the adjacent territory to know the exact location of the new store and to become familiar with our stock and policy.

Watch the store at 5:00 p. m.

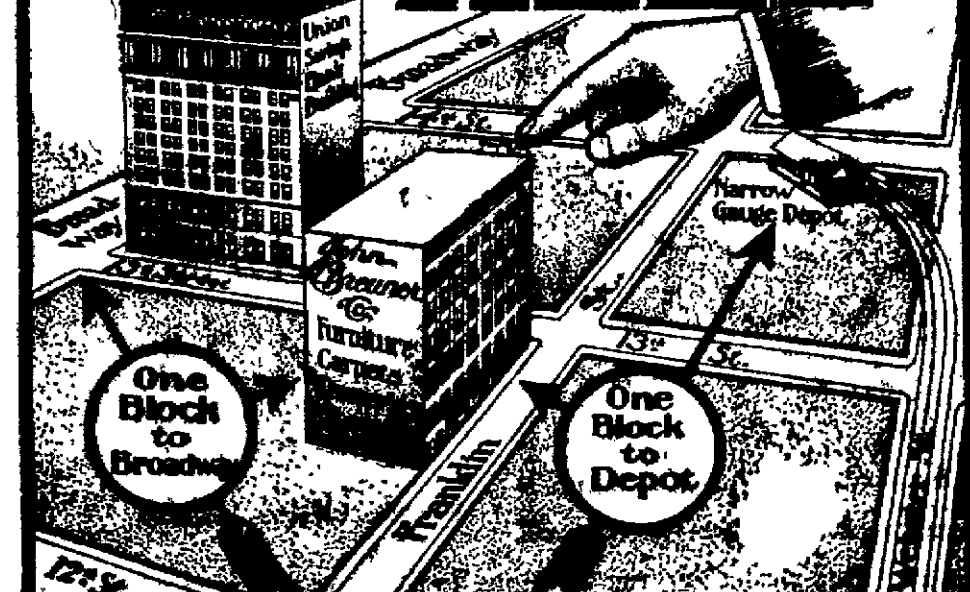

We hope that you may be one of the lucky two hundred who win valuable prizes.

SOCIETY BRIDE TO PAY FOR TROUSSEAU; MOTHER WON'T

Mrs. Alfred Weber Forced to Settle $50 Bill for Wedding Outfit Bought in Parent's Name.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Weber were sued this morning in Judge Quinn's court by Kahn's Dry Goods House for the sum of $50, the amount of a trousseau purchased last August and charged to Mrs. Weber's mother, Mrs. S. B. Bothsow, who refused to pay for her daughter's wedding outfit.

Mrs. Weber stated that it was her mother's duty to pay for the trousseau, but she refused to meet her daughter's demands. The account was charged to Mrs. Bothsow, but the justice rendered judgment against Mrs. Weber, who will be made to pay the bill.

Mrs. Alfred Weber, who was Miss Georgia Wheeler, was a much-feted bride before her marriage to Weber, who is an agent for the Hamilton Grate Company. Mrs. Weber is a graduate of Mills' Seminary and a very popular young woman. She has a host of friends in social circles about the bay. She is a clever equestrienne and is rated as one of the most graceful and daring horsewomen in Alameda County, and besides is highly esteemed for her artistic attainments.

Mrs. Weber is at present stopping at one of the fashionable apartment houses in Oakland.

FRENCH ATOMIZERS.

Perfumes are fashionable again, although anything but a delicate odor strictly is tabooed by refined and conservative women. Only a small quantity is permissible and the French pump atomizer is the most satisfactory contrivance for obtaining an equal distribution of perfume. An extremely attractive style is made of blue Austrian glass, which is rich in color and slightly iridescent and is decorated with silver deposit, artistically engraved. The top is of plain polished silver. Another handsome atomizer is made of cut-glass with an engraved silver top. A new French novelty is small enough to fit in the shopping bag.

HAND BAG.

A new handbag, made of seal, has a broad, overlapping band fastened with patent clasps, and a strap handle at the back large enough to let the hand slip through and grasp the bag at the bottom. It is most practical and useful, being absolutely safe to carry, for it cannot be snatched from the hand of the wearer. The bag is well made and has a leather covered inside frame fastened with German silver clasp mountings. Bags of the same shape in larger sizes are finished with strap handles.

ROCKING THE BABY.

If you have a cross baby that must be rocked to sleep, instead of using a cradle stretch a hammock across the room, and tie one end of a rope to the hammock and the other to your foot. In this way you can read or sew while rocking the baby.

$1.95 Buys this Chair

This picture is one of our best sellers in a box cane seat diner, made of select oak, finished in either golden or weathered. The pattern is one of the most graceful, is braced rigidly and will stand the wear and tear for years. Note the French style legs and the pretty style back. Regular price $3.75. Special $1.95.

Arm chair to match. Regular $7.50. Special $4.20.

Scores of specials for today and tomorrow in dining room and bedroom furniture. It will pay you to come in tomorrow.

STYLISH JET COMBS.

The jet combs shown in the shops this season are much more attractive than last year's styles, for the designs are not so heavy and massive. The new high back, Spanish combs are ornamental and artistic. The fetching combination of jet and rhinestones is seen on some of the new back combs and sets.

LEATHER BELTS.

There is a craze for pigskin in Paris and the fad has been taken up by American women. Crush effects are popular in pigskin belts, which are finished with leather covered buckles in square or oval shapes. Steel stud leather belts lead every other style in popularity.

NEW SPOONS.

Medicine spoons of silver deposit glass are great improvements over the old-fashioned variety, for they can be kept clean simply by rinsing and will not become tarnished, or discolored by any drug or acid. Three measurements are marked on the stem of the spoon, which is sold for $1.50.

FOR DELICATE CHILD.

Get field corn; shell and parch in hot oven as you roast coffee. Grind and make just like you do coffee. Sweeten a little in a cup, add a little cream, and feed to the child. The child will fatten and thrive with the use of it, and it need not interfere with any other food you are giving.
